DONALD TRUMP WAS FRAMED

• D.C. traitors behind Deep State plot to take down Trump

By John Friend

Rep. Devin Nunes, the fire-brand California congressman and top Republican on the influential House Intelligence Committee, is seeking long overdue criminal charges against unnamed individuals involved with the malicious and arguably treasonous investigation into the debunked conspiracy theory alleging Russian interference in the 2016 presidential election.

Nunes recently explained to Fox News that he plans on submitting eight criminal referrals to the Justice Department on charges including manipulating or falsifying intelligence, leaking classified intelligence to the media, and misleading federal judges sitting on the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act (FISA) court in relation to the infamous Steele dossier, which has been thoroughly discredited.

Rep. Devin Nunes, the top Republican on the House Intelligence Committee, says there was a criminal conspiracy to manipulate intelligence regarding the Trump-Russia investigation.

“We believe there is a conspiracy to lie to the FISA court, mislead the FISA court, by numerous individuals that all need to be investigated and looked at,” Nunes explained to Fox News in a recent interview. He also insisted that he has seen legitimate evidence that proves individuals associated with the Trump-Russia investigation were involved in a criminal conspiracy “involving manipulation of intelligence.”

Nunes has yet to name the individuals against whom he is attempting to pursue federal criminal charges but did note that he has the names of five specific persons involved in the investigation he believes committed crimes.

“We do believe that we’ve got pretty good information and a pretty good idea of who could be behind these leaks,” Nunes told Fox News.

Nunes has long been a critic of the Russia-Trump collusion investigation and has launched his own investigations into the bogus dossier authored by former UK spy Christopher Steele, which was used to justify surveillance warrants against former
