9-11 ANNIVERSARY EDITION WEALTH OF NEW INFORMATION REVEALED ON ATTACKS

AFP First National Newspaper to Talk Honestly About 9-11

By Victor Thorn

Within a week of the 9-11 attacks—at a time when questioning the government’s official version of events was already considered almost seditious, AFP had already begun informing its readers that the Osama bin Laden-19 Arab hijackers story had more holes in it than a block of Swiss cheese.

Considering the intense shock to our nation, these were dangerous times to oppose the neo-con led administration. In the aftermath of this catastrophe, President George W. Bush upped the ante by threatening Americans with the consequences of exhibiting any “unpatriotic” tendencies. “You’re either with us, or you’re with the terrorists,” he sneered in what would become his style of cowboy diplomacy.

Bush’s intentions were clear: If you dare investigate these obviously suspicious crimes, we’ll marginalize you and brand you an enemy of the state. Later, realizing that their house of cards could come crashing down, Bush addressed the UN with this warning: “Let us never tolerate outrageous conspiracy theories concerning the attacks of Sept. 11.”

Still, in AFP’s issue no. 5, dated Sept. 24, 2001, Michael Collins Piper threw down the gauntlet by reminding subscribers of direct Mossad links to the first WTC bombing, in 1993. The following week, AFP asked about Israeli foreknowledge of these horrific strikes in New York and D.C.

Subsequent issues contained articles on the WTC controlled demolitions, fake cell phone calls, the military’s incomprehensible stand-down, gangs of celebrating Israelis, pools of molten steel beneath Ground Zero, Osama bin Laden’s doubles and interviews with survivor William Rodriguez and 9-11 widow Ellen Mariani. AFP also published a special report entitled 50 Unanswered Questions About 9-11, plus books such as Debunking 9-11 and Phantom Flight 93.

Without doubt, no event in the past decade has had such an impact on our lives as 9-11, not to mention the tentacles that have sprung from it, including the Patriot Act, Homeland Security, TSA inspections, two atrocious foreign wars, color-coded terror alerts and astronomical spending.

From day one, AFP courageously stood at the forefront of what would become known as the 9-11 truth movement. Without AFP’s contributions, it’s likely that another similar attack would have already been leveled against the U.S. by now.

This special edition—containing much new information—is our tribute to those who died on 9-11, their families and all those who seek the truth about Sept. 11, 2001.

PERSONAL FROM THE EDITOR

Special 9-11-2011 Edition

This week's edition is our 9-11 10-year anniversary theme issue, which is dedicated to providing the latest uncensored news on the attacks that struck the United States back on Sept. 11, 2001.

Even a decade later, who in the United States could forget that day? It was one of those historic times where people vividly remember where they were and what they were doing when they first received the news. At AFP's office in the nation's capital, we certainly could not forget. Less than a month before, our founding editors, journalists and staffers had just started up AMERICAN FREE PRESS after The Spotlight had been forced to close its doors forever.

And right from the start, we questioned the official story that 19 Arabs had hijacked jetliners and crashed them into the World Trade Center and the Pentagon. But sadly, as time went on, it became evident to us that the overwhelming majority of Americans bought the federal government's conspiracy theory and embraced more wars and debt and less freedom.

Ten years later, however, as the raw emotions have begun to heal, more and more people have figured out that something is not right about that old bogus tale of 9-11. And with that in mind, we made the decision to press hard to counter the spin that has been peddled for the past decade by the government and the media.

Our assignment editor, Victor Thorn, deserves the credit for what you'll see inside. A prolific author and journalist, Thorn is well known to AFP readers for trying to find out what really happened on that day and who was behind it. On page 12, we are also featuring Thorn's latest book, Made in Israel: 9-11 and the Jewish Plot Against America, for the simple reason that, the more one examines Sept. 11, the more one is left with the undeniable conclusion that the Israelis must have been involved. This work follows on the heels of Thorn's previous books exploring various aspects of the issue in detail. These include Phantom Flight 93, which looks at all of the anomalies surrounding the crash of United Airlines Flight 93 in rural Pennsylvania, as well as the self-explanatory 9-11 Evil: Israel's Central Role in the September 11, 2001 Terrorist Attacks.

On a final note, we would like to offer our sincerest thanks to our supporters and our advertisers, who over the years refused to buckle to outside pressure and have stood by us despite everything. Nobody ever said being on the side of the angels was going to be easy. This 10-year anniversary of 9-11 is our anniversary, too. So, from the bottom of our heart, we say, thank you for everything you have done to get us where we are today.

Sept. 11, 2001: A Day of Evil

By Victor Thorn

Ten years ago, on the brilliantly sunny morning of Sept. 11, 2001, mass murderers unleashed acts of terror that would kill nearly 3,000 innocent citizens. As Americans watched these horrors unfold on their television sets, they were subjected to images that would traumatize them and transform our nation.

As sirens wailed, fires burned, people screamed and television newsmen riddled their viewers with alarm, those who orchestrated this event reveled in the paranoia and carnage.

As blame for these attacks was quickly placed on Osama bin Laden and 19 Muslim skyjackers wielding box cutters, the actual plotters—pro-Israeli exterminators and their neo-con political sycophants—peered from the shadows as horrified jumpers leapt to their deaths from the World Trade Center towers.

Shortly thereafter, the 110-story twin towers and a third skyscraper—Building 7—were swallowed directly into the earth. “Ground Zero” was born.

The monstrous people responsible for these crimes against humanity desecrated our security. Certainly 9-11 was an inside job, but it was also an outside job as well. The same people who assaulted USS Liberty, killing 34 Americans and wounding 174, in 1967 now unleashed without a trace of conscience their bloodlust on America's own homeland.

On that fateful morning, pandemonium ran rampant through every neighborhood. People wondered—and rightly so—if World War III had begun. After the Pentagon, our military's nerve center, was purportedly rendered ineffective against the onslaught, what target would be next?

Americans sat transfixed on images on their TVs, frozen with fright. At this moment, brainwashing and trauma programming reached new heights of effectiveness.

Sirens, flames, controlled demolitions, masses of toxic smoke and terror alerts were on every channel along with mounting death counts. The world had changed, and it would never be the same.

The 9-11 architects created this Pearl Harbor grand illusion to lay a foundation for even more crimes, such as the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq, where killing-field corpses would be stacked by the tens of thousands and poppies would grow again.

It was 10 years ago that this “Made in Israel” false-flag attack stole Americans' lives and savaged our country. They are destroyers, and we will never forget what they've done to us. ★

Shanksville Resident Speaks Out About 9-11

By Victor Thorn

Has somebody actually located the spot where Flight 93—or a plane purported to be Flight 93—crashed near Shanksville, Pa. on Sept. 11, 2001? On Aug. 10, AFP's Washington, D.C. office received a phone call from a woman in Cambria County, Pa. who will only be identified in this article as "Nicole."

That same afternoon, Nicole told this writer: "To my knowledge, a plane went down near Imgrund Mountain Road off of New Baltimore Road. It's so isolated and rocky along that hillside that it'd be an ideal place for a plane to be hidden."

Nicole's revelations coincide with information provided in Phantom Flight 93,* especially a crucial live telecast filed by CNN's Brian Cabell on Sept. 11. He reported that a second debris field had been cordoned off approximately six miles from Shanksville. Obviously, plane crashes don't cause wreckage to mysteriously fly six miles through the air.

Nicole agreed and felt suspicious of the official story from day one.

"I could tell right away that there was something fishy about it," she said. "I knew a plane couldn't have gone in there [the 20-foot Shanksville crater] from the pictures I saw on TV. It was such a farce."

She continued: "The main road off Route 30 leading into New Baltimore was cordoned off for weeks afterward. Nobody could drive down it unless they lived there. Everyone was told to shut up and not to say anything to anyone."

As to the plane's possible removal, Nicole added, "Since New Baltimore is so isolated and had been cordoned off, I feel they must have combed that wooded area for weeks, and then taken the wreckage out at night along Route 30."

Even the official Shanksville crater site went into almost immediate lockdown. "There were guards around the perimeter," Nicole said. "Nobody could have possibly gotten in. They had a lot of manpower surrounding it."

To rationalize the lack of luggage, engines, wings, fuselage, passengers, seats etc., online writer Michael Fortner spewed some incredible disinformation that compared the supposed impact of Flight 93—filled with mere jet fuel—to that of an atomic bomb. Even though the airliner in question was last seen only feet above the treetops, Fortner concluded, "The blast destroyed the plane and vaporized the passengers."

Eyewitness Eric Peterson of nearby Lambertsville verified the aircraft's horizontal course not far above their heads. "It was low enough, you could probably count the rivets," he said.

Nicole concurred that the plane's low trajectory prohibited it from having enough force to create a nuclear-style blast. "It was so low to the ground, it didn't nosedive, but slid on its underbelly when hitting the mountain," she said. "Everything else is a charade."

Nicole hasn't spoken with other media outlets about these matters until her first-ever interview with AMERICAN FREE PRESS.

"Anyone that questions the Shanksville story is considered an outsider around here," she said. "The locals look down on anyone that speaks out because they see all the tourist dollars coming into our area. We got rewarded with an addition to our fire department and new fire engines. So, the townspeople feel important now that thousands of travelers are coming here. Even President Obama is visiting on Sept. 11. We've become very popular, but the whole thing is based on a lie, and it makes me disgusted." ★

Jesse Ventura Cites CIA Files To Support Sept. 11 Theories

By Victor Thorn

While discussing his latest book 63 Documents the Government Doesn't Want You to Read,* Jesse Ventura told this writer on June 14, "In 1962 the Joint Chiefs of Staff advocated that the U.S. military attack our own country in a false-flag terrorist strike, then blame it on Cuba. The plan was called Operation Northwoods, and it doesn't get any worse than that."

Ventura was correct. In Body of Secrets, author and National Security Agency (NSA) authority James Bamford called this operation "the most corrupt plan ever created by the U.S. government."

In this light, the former Minnesota governor continued: "If you read these documents, you'll see how the Pentagon gave to President Kennedy the option—using the CIA and our military—to attack American cities using airliners. It was all conceived to support an invasion of Cuba. The people behind Operation Northwoods wanted to kill American citizens as a way of carrying out their political agenda. To me, that's treason."

He concluded, "Operation Northwoods was on the table, but fortunately JFK didn't follow through with it."

And for good reason. In the classified March 13, 1962 document, Gen. Lyman Lemnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, suggested, "We could blow up a U.S. ship in Guantanamo Bay and blame Cuba."

More ominously, other ideas included hijacking attempts, burning jet fighters on military bases or bombing ammunition depots.

Obviously, the similarities to 9-11 are haunting, the only difference being that instead of blaming Cuba, Osama bin Laden and 19 Muslim sky-jackers were the patsies, all used to garner support for American invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq.

To reinforce how willing certain sectors of the U.S. government were, Ventura cited Orlando Bosch, a known international terrorist who, it is alleged, was in the employ of the United States.

"[Bosch] was a CIA operative that was involved in blowing up Cuban ships, assassination attempts on Fidel Castro and the eradication of sugar fields," said Ventura.

With direct evidence now available to gauge what the madmen in our government are capable of, Ventura writes in 63 Documents about Operation Northwoods:

"You could think of it as establishing a precedent for the future. If something like this were on the table in

"History has a way of repeating itself, like that old cliché: If it works once, let's try it again."

JESSE VENTURA

False flag operations nothing new for U.S.

1962, wouldn't it have likewise been in 2001? What Northwoods had on the drawing board, I believe, 9-11 was. It seems that all through history, wars and takeovers are started with false-flag operations. History has a way of repeating itself, like that old cliché: If it works once, let's try it again." ★

AFP Interviews Famed Researcher About 9-11

JIM MARRS

Federal 9-11 story the worst conspiracy theory of them all.

By Pat Shannan

"Of all the conspiracy theories I've ever heard, the U.S. government's official story of what happened on 9-11 is the absolute worst one of all," says best-selling author Jim Marrs of Texas.

Marrs's Crossfire remains one of the most informative books on the JFK assassination and cover-up and is a touchstone for those seeking conspiracy facts rather than theory. In 2004, he released Inside Job: Unmasking the 9-11 Conspiracies, while his latest book on this same subject is The Terror Conspiracy Revisited.

"We were told that 19 Muslim terrorist fanatics somehow bypassed our $40 billion defense system, hijacked four planes simultaneously and caused all their transponders to shut down at the same time. These planes were then lost from both FAA and NORAD radar—not to mention satellite radar—before making their way to New York and crashing into the World Trade Center towers, then the Pentagon and the countryside in Pennsylvania. Moreover, a billionaire Muslim cleric hiding in a cave in Afghanistan with a computer supposedly masterminded it. Americans will believe anything."

Marrs also told AFP that some of the oldest information of all is still "new" because it's gone unreported.

"Salem bin Laden was partnering in the oil business with the Bush family as far back as 1977," Marrs said. "This was long before his younger brother Osama tied in to the Carlyle Investment Group with young George and Dick Cheney. Is this why some 40 members of the bin Laden family were allowed to fly out of America a day after every other flight had been grounded?"

Marrs added: "The Pentagon is one of the most protected buildings in the world. It even has automated anti-aircraft batteries that are triggered by any unfriendly aircraft transponder. No plane can fly into it. How could the alleged hijackers coordinate their timing with the 9-11 war games? There is only one answer: This was an inside job; they had inside information."

"The 9-11 war games" refers to the five war games and terror drills that were being conducted by the U.S. military, including one "live air" exercise using planes. (See related story on page 21.) ★

How Much Gold Was Under WTC Complex?

By Keith Johnson

Earlier this year, a coin dealership ran a television ad for a 10th-anniversary 9-11 commemorative coin that was allegedly “clad in .999 pure silver actually recovered from vaults beneath the ashes of Ground Zero.” That commercial provoked retired New York Police Department Capt. Tom DePrisco to tell The New York Daily News in late January, “That’s pure [expletive deleted].”

In the aftermath of the devastating attacks on 9-11, DePrisco was assigned to the Office of Emergency Management to assist in recovering precious metals buried in a two-story vault beneath the rubble of Trade Center (WTC) Building 4 and transfer it to another vault at the Brooklyn Naval Yard World.

He said the operation began on Oct. 16, 2001 and lasted for two days. DePrisco reminisces about the moment he walked into the vault. He said, “It was like a scene out of [the James Bond movie] Goldfinger . . . endless neat stacks of gold, silver and platinum bars—a half-billion dollars worth.”

According to the Daily News article, “We never recovered any other precious metals,” said DePrisco. “So it boils my blood that anyone would sell a fake coin claiming to be made with silver recovered from Ground Zero.”

The Daily News has since contacted the dealer of these coins, who responded by saying that they were in fact authentic. The company said they have a complete chain of custody for the merchandise and claim to have bought these items from a company that purchased them from a bank “storing silver bars, coins etc. in its vaults under the WTC.”

The fate of nearly $1 billion worth of gold, silver and other precious metals stored beneath the WTC before 9-11 continues to baffle many.

To this day, only $230 million has officially been accounted for. All of that was retrieved from the previously mentioned, two-level, 6,000-square-foot vault maintained by the Bank of Nova Scotia. They reportedly lost $200 million in gold as a result of the attacks. However, other estimates suggest there was an additional $750 million worth of precious metals that may have been stored in other vaults or hurriedly evacuated from the Nova Scotia vault before the skyscrapers came down.

“The gold . . . was being transported through the basement of the building on the morning of Sept. 11.”

According to a Nov. 1, 2001 article in The London Times: “The Comex metals trading division of the New York Mercantile Exchange kept 3,800 gold bars—weighing 12 tons and worth more than $100 million—in vaults in the building’s [apparently Building 5—Ed.] basement. Comex also held almost 800,000 ounces of gold there on behalf of others with a value of about $220 million. It also held more than 102 million ounces of silver, worth [an estimated] $430 million.”

The Times piece also reported that some of the recovered gold may have been found outside this vault. “The gold, which was discovered . . . was being transported through the basement of the building on the morning of Sept. 11,” reads the article. “Recovery workers reached a service tunnel and discovered a 10-wheel [truck] and a number of cars [that] had been crushed by falling steel.”

Another article appearing in The New York Daily

A photo of World Trade Center 5 before Sept. 11, 2001. Note the standing WTC towers 1 and 2 in the background.

News around that same time corroborates this story: “Sources said the gold was found in a delivery tunnel under 5 World Trade Center.”

If these accounts are true, they strongly conflict with the official story, which alleges that all the recovered metals were found inside the Bank of Nova Scotia vault under WTC 4. This has led some to speculate that insiders with short-term advanced knowledge of the attacks made a frantic effort to transfer the treasures by truck to a safe, undisclosed location.

Was the uncovered 10-wheel truck the last in a fleet of gold-laden rigs with an armed security escort? Did personnel decide to abandon these vehicles and flee on foot as they heard the structure above them giving way? Answers to these questions may never be fully addressed so long as the federal government refuses to revisit the 9-11 tragedy with an adequate investigation.

Meanwhile, some insist the official story is an unabashed lie and that another reason behind the 9-11 attacks was to pull off the biggest gold heist in history. One of the more outrageous claims along this vein comes from former mob boss Tony Gambino, who declared in a 2007 radio interview: “I know for a fact that Bush [and other] U.S. government leaders had prior knowledge and helped organize 9-11. They did it for many obvious reasons, one being to instigate a war in Iraq. But they also did it to get their hands on all the gold that was hidden below the [WTC].”

Gambino claims that his grandfather’s construction company built the WTC and installed underground vaults to warehouse vast quantities of gold, where it was later stolen on 9-11. ★

A New York firefighter walks through undamaged gold vault holding hundreds of millions of dollars’ worth of gold bars. The vault evidently withstood the demolition of the World Trade Center. According to the website www.presscore.ca, firefighters were ordered out after this picture was taken.

CANCER ANSWER?

Invented by Engineer John Ellis, High Solubility Water™ produces GREAT blood flow and HIGH BLOOD OXYGEN THAT "CURES ANYTHING" ( WASHINGTON POST as far back as 1/27/92)! As a result, it is now available in cosmetics and bottled water, while the savings in laundry detergents (which are destroying our water supplies) pays for the machine!! Customers have told us for years that because of the ability to remove contaminants, they were using a cup of high solubility tap water instead of detergents in their laundry! One man couldn't remove an oil stain from his shirt...our water removed it! NEVER drink ordinary distilled water with lower solubility than tap water. (John Ellis has an Engineering Degree that includes Steam Plant Design)

Background: The 80 year old inventor, a Choate School and Lafayette College Engineering graduate, invented a scientific measuring device as a 17 year old (still used worldwide). An Oil Well Engineer, Design Engineer at Douglas Aerospace and Honeywell Engineer, at age 30 he started his own business and invented a switch that operates (on-off) within .0001 of an inch. Honeywell and Military/Industrial users: "He's the only person that knows how to produce it!" In similar fashion, textbook science said "You can't change water properties"...he HAS for the benefit of mankind!

LIKE THE ONCOLOGISTS BELOW, REGULATORS REMEMBER WHAT THEY LEARNED IN MEDICAL SCHOOL FROM TWO TIME NOBEL PRIZE WINNER OTTO WARBURG M.D.: "CANCER CELLS CAN'T SURVIVE IN HIGH BLOOD OXYGEN!" THAT'S THE KEY!! WE DISCOVERED HOW TO GET MORE OXYGEN INTO THE BLOOD STREAM BY INCREASING THE SOLUBILITY OF WATER AND THE RESULTS CAN BE MEASURED NON-INVASIVELY ON THE SKIN! THAT'S WHY REGULATORS WON'T ALLOW "ALTERNATIVE CANCER CURES"! NONE PROVIDE THE REQUIRED HIGH BLOOD OXYGEN LEVEL. In addition, cancer can go into remission spontaneously!

This is how this was discovered: An M.D. that taught at the UCLA Medical School used our water to perform non-invasive tests that we can use because the results are measured on the SKIN (using Doppler Ultrasound) to see which water produced the best Blood Flow to the extremities (Blood is 94% water): "Nothing is even close to your water in getting blood to the extremities!!" This is because our water has higher SOLUBILITY (that a child can measure) than ANY other water!! When you increase the Solubility of water, blood flow increases and your Blood can absorb more oxygen coming into your LUNGS (simply oxygenating water doesn't get oxygen into the blood stream)! Regulators also allowed the product "Put It Where It Hurts" because in similar fashion, the results can be measured non-invasively on the SKIN!

I am an 80 year old Engineer and Inventor. When I was in Engineering School text book science said you couldn't increase the Solubility of water (Hydrogen Bond Angle) and some people still believe that. However, The Washington Times with a 600 million investment in Washington, DC has been a major influence and the Advertising Manager called me years ago to say they had at least 50 phone calls ranging from the Los Alamos Nuclear Lab to Johns Hopkins Hospital: "They all have your machines!" Los Alamos Scientists: "We were wrong! He is right!"

If you look at our website, the Ad Manager has a contact number to verify all these reports including his own great success story. With a full page ad in The Washington Times every week for 15 years, he knows more about the results better than anyone including reports from the top three Oncologists in the United States!

I understand the information you are providing is for educational purposes only. As stated above, this information is not intended to diagnose, treat, cure or prevent disease. In all health-related situations, qualified healthcare professionals should always be consulted.

Recently, since it's such a touchy subject, I was startled by the cancer comments from a caller so I said: "How would you know that? He said he was an Oncologist at Sloan for 30 years and since he retired without access to our machine, he wanted our E5 Machine!"

He is just one of the retired Oncologists from Sloan that have bought our machines and mentioned that they all knew about Otto Warburg M.D. in Medical School and they wondered how many years it would take for somebody to figure this out! That made me realize that the Regulators obtained the same information in Medical School and that's why they won't allow "alternative cancer cures"! Since the results can be measured non-invasively on the skin, it has been widely reported in The Washington Post (1/27/92: 10,000 people/day, "Cures Anything") along with a description of our patents that include the method but not the proprietary information required to break down the bonds in water and increase the Solubility.

Eyewitnesses Debunk Official Pentagon Tale

Above: Two of the eyewitnesses who told filmmaker Craig Ranke their shocking stories about what happened at the Pentagon on Sept. 11, 2001. See page 17 for ad.

By Victor Thorn

Craig Ranke considers himself and the Citizen Investigation Team to be public enemy No. 1 with some in the mainstream 9-11 truth movement, especially after the release of their Pentagon documentary entitled National Security Alert.

“Dishonest, compromised alleged 9-11 truthers have made us their No. 1 target likely because the perpetrators want to distract people from the Pentagon and keep them focused on the WTC towers so that the movement remains mired in scientific debate,” said Ranke.

Ranke has uncovered direct, firsthand testimony from an eyewitness who saw the plane that allegedly hit the Pentagon instead fly away from the structure.

Specifically, Citizen Investigation Team interviewed Roosevelt Roberts Jr. of the Pentagon Force Protection Agency, who said that he saw a plane at less than 100 feet altitude, just above the light poles, flying away after the large explosion at the Pentagon.

Ranke also said he spoke with taxi driver Lloyd England, whose damaged cab was part of the staged light pole scene, and admitted to Ranke it was a “planned” event for “the people who have money.”

“Given our findings, the only logical explanation for what caused the damage at the Pentagon on 9-11 was internal, pre-planted explosives,” Ranke said. “There is no evidence for missiles, global hawks or flying objects such as sky warriors or [other] drones.”

He went further: “A Pentagon flyover is the only possible conclusion. The official story delineates a specific trajectory, but witnesses to the plane contradict this required flight path. This isn’t our theory, but what witnesses told us on camera.”

Ranke elaborated:

“Over a dozen eyewitnesses said they saw the plane on the Citgo station’s north side. But for the government’s version to be true, the plane had to fly south of the gas station. This is the only way the plane could have damaged the five downed light poles, hit the generator trailer and caused the damage to the Pentagon’s facade leading to the curious round exit hole in the C-ring. The high level of independent corroboration we provide for an approach north of the gas station is proof beyond a reasonable doubt that this is where the plane flew, destroying the official impact narrative.”

Ranke’s research led to an ironic point: “Most of the eyewitnesses were honest people who were deceived into believing the plane hit, and then used by the media to sell this bogus story. While they thought they were defending the official version of the event, they unwittingly blew it wide open and disproved it.” ★

Pilots for 9-11 Truth Allege Radar Manipulation

By Victor Thorn

The founder of Pilots for 9-11 Truth, Rob Balsamo, is in a unique position to unravel the many anomalies that occurred on Sept. 11. Regrettably, he told this writer on July 13: “Almost all of our work has been suppressed and swept under the rug, including by [people in] the 9-11 truth movement.”

Their documentary 9-11 Intercepted chronicles one of these underreported subjects: Plane-swapping. This occurs when one plane flies above another, making only one radar image.

“After inspecting radar data obtained through FOIA requests, I saw several blips converge around aircraft reportedly used on 9-11 that were flying at over 30,000 feet,” he said. “It’s most alarming that two, or even three planes overlapped, became one, then separated and changed direction from where they originated, all at these high altitudes.”

When asked if these occurrences were an example of plane-swapping, Balsamo replied, “I can’t think of any other reason for them to converge. Aren’t air traffic controllers supposed to separate planes at 30,000 feet, not let them converge, fly in unison, and then break off? I’ve never seen or heard of anything like this in my entire career.”

AFP inquired as to which flights were involved.

“Two different planes overlapped in midair with

ROB BALSAMO

Pilot says some radar funny business occurred on 9-11.

[United Airlines Flight] 93, and then another craft converged with [United Airlines Flight] 175,” he said. “It’s important to remember that none of these radar ‘blips’ was in a holding pattern, and they weren’t fighter jet intercepts, either. This happened at least twice that morning.”

9-11 Intercepted also exposes bogus radar tracks, inaccurate airplane position reports and other variations of aviation hocus-pocus. Ultimately, AFP wondered, who should be held responsible for these deceptions.

Balsamo replied, “Dick Cheney took command of NORAD in June 2001, and it’s my speculation that decisions were made at the highest levels of government.”

In terms of our military’s notorious stand-down, Balsamo also provided inside knowledge.

“Fighter jets were called to scramble at 9:08 a.m. out of Langley [a flight distance of seven miles from Washington, D.C.], but their orders were inexplicably changed,” he said. “The pilots sat in their cockpits for an excruciating 16 minutes, then didn’t make it to D.C. until after the Pentagon ‘event’ had already occurred.”

When pilots were finally scrambled, more errors ensued. According to Balsamo, “misinformation was deliberately put into FAA computer systems so that dispatched fighters flew out over the Atlantic Ocean or other incorrect directions. These mistakes were repeated over and over again by Boston air traffic controllers and their military liaisons at NORAD. The FAA and NORAD were responsible for protecting America’s northeast quadrant on 9-11, and there’s never been a legitimate answer for their actions. All we know is that the scrambled fighter jets were always diverted by bogus position reports.”

Conveniently enough, this orchestrated confusion forced the world’s best fighter pilots into a state of total ineffectiveness. ★

WTC Insurers Pay Out Huge Amounts to

By Frank Whalen

While Americans mourned the tragedies of the 9-11 attacks, World Trade Center (WTC) complex owner Larry Silverstein had other things in mind, particularly cashing in on insurance money from the properties he had purchased on July 24, 2001.

In an entry dated Sept. 12, 2001, History Commons cited author Steven Brill as stating: "According to two people who called him that morning to offer their sympathy, Silverstein soon changed the subject. [He] told one of the callers that the way his insurance policies were written, two planes crashing into the two towers had been two different occurrences, not part of the same event." Brill added that: "Silverstein's lawyers claimed the developer had been on the phone to them on the evening of 9-11 wondering whether his insurance policies could be read in a way that would construe the attacks as two separate, insurable incidents rather than one."

To understand this situation: In 2001 the WTC complex was viewed by real estate moguls as a white elephant. With a low occupancy rate, toxic asbestos that would cost $200 million to remove, substandard elevator systems and an outdated technological network, nobody could understand why Silverstein would purchase this albatross for a $124 million down payment, which, in hindsight, now looks like a steal of a deal.

Six weeks later, Silverstein began angling for a $7 billion double-indemnity payout on his $3.55 billion insurance policies. Although he waged a lengthy courtroom battle that would last six years, Silverstein eventually collected $4.56 billion from his investment in the WTC leases.

Seven insurance companies out of 24 agreed to settle stein didn't have one company insuring his properties—he had 24. From a business perspective, it's reasonable to conclude that 24 separate insurance policies were taken out to spread the financial burden so that all of the companies would be able to pay a portion without going bankrupt. Having multiple insurance companies also minimized public scrutiny enough so that stockholders wouldn't ask why CEOs were agreeing to pay out such enormous sums based solely on the government's questionable version of events.

Larry Silverstein, left, the owner of the World Trade Center complex, got $4.56 billion in payouts from insurance companies as a result of the Sept. 11 attacks.

Nonetheless, the question remains: Why would any of these companies agree to compensate Silverstein when there were countless reasons for denying his insurance claims?

Based on the facts of this story, it appears that the payouts were agreed upon in order to lend credence to the government's official account of what took place on Sept. 11, 2001. If any of these 24 companies had seriously challenged the official version of events, the entire house of cards would have collapsed like the World Trade Center towers.

Going even deeper, in a Sept. 29, 2006 article entitled "9-11 and the Greenberg Familia," Jerry Mazza pinpoints another major player in this scam: Maurice Greenberg. As a former deputy chairman of the Council on Foreign Relations and former director of the New York Federal Reserve, Greenberg also has notable CIA ties and is known as the godfather of insurance giant AIG.

Mazza wrote: "The three companies who originally with Silverstein. Those companies were: Travelers Cos., Zurich American Insurance Co., Swiss Reinsurance Co., Employers Insurance Company of Wausau, Allianz Global Risks U.S. Insurance Co., Industrial Risk Insurers and Royal Indemnity Co.

However, a glaring oddity still remains: Insurance companies are notorious for investigating every aspect of every claim made against a policy, regardless of how seemingly insignificant. The reason is that the legwork cost of such investigations usually pales in comparison to the money saved from a payout.

Here is where this situation gets interesting: Silver-

9-11: EVIL

ISRAEL'S ROLE IN 9-11

By Victor Thorn

Victor Thorn's blockbuster 9-11 Evil bills itself as the most dangerous 9-11 book ever written and is exactly that, because it blows the lid off the media suppression of ZIONIST involvement in the greatest crime ever perpetrated against the American people. Thorn writes: "The attacks on New York and Washington were only the beginning, and if we don't fully recognize who the real enemy is and stop it dead in its tracks right now, we won't have another opportunity." Thorn's book points the finger squarely at the Mossad and at Israel. What did happen on 9-11? Did the WTC Towers collapse due to controlled demolitions that were well planned in advance? Did Flight 77 really strike the Pentagon? Thorn lists the best 9-11 books that form the core of his research and sources, the most reputable 9-11 researchers, those who don't wander into fanciful high-tech explanations. Find out the truth. ## PHANTOM FLIGHT 93

And Other Astounding 9-11 Mysteries Explored

Is Flight 93 the key to unraveling the entire 9-11 mystery? In Phantom Flight 93—the first book to emerge from the 9-11 truth movement on this subject—you will discover how this event in Shanksville is the smoking gun that exposes the government's falsehoods once and for all. Starting with physical evidence—especially a 10-by-12 foot crater in an abandoned strip mine—it becomes clear that a passenger jetliner could not have possibly crashed in Shanksville where federal officials said it did. Rather, the reality of that fateful morning is much more troublesome, and far more sinister. Also cited in this book are a plethora of lies concerning the now-infamous cell phone calls, 9-11 passenger list oddities, corrupt officials who were in a position to assist in the plan and more. For far too long, Flight 93 has been overlooked by researchers and commentators in the alternative media. With the arrival of Phantom Flight 93, written by Victor Thorn, the public will finally see that they were deceived about the "crash" in southwest Pennsylvania which became the stuff of legend. # Support Official 9-11 Tale insured the WTC were AIG, Marsh [McLennan] and ACE, all run by the Greenbergs at the time. They then sold stakes in the original contract to their competition, a technique called reinsuring. Once the towers came down, the reinsurers got caught holding the bag. This would inextricably tie the Greenbergs to Silverstein and the larger conspiracy of 9-11. If they had no foreknowledge of the events to occur, why would the Greenbergs have unloaded so many stakes in their contract?"

Greenberg also has a decades-old connection to Henry Kissinger, the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) and members of Mossad. Furthermore, Greenberg became partners with Jules Kroll in 1993. Conveniently, Kroll & Associates was responsible for security at the WTC towers on Sept. 11, 2001. Some researchers have even concluded that Greenberg's AIG served as a successor to BCCI, the most corrupt money-laundering syndicate in history.

Greenberg's son Jeffrey was chairman of Marsh McLennan, one of the three companies that originally held insurance claims for Silverstein before dumping it to reinsurers, while Greenberg's other son Evan was CEO of ACE Ltd., the third company holding insurance claims for Silverstein before peddling them elsewhere.

In the end, Silverstein pocketed $4.56 billion, while the Greenberg family profited from dumping Lucky Larry's insurance policies on other unsuspecting companies before they were compelled to shell out a single penny.

Adding insult to injury, Greenberg's AIG has received, to date, at least $85 billion in bailout money from U.S. taxpayers via a loan from the Federal Reserve. ★

Unexplained Happenings Inside WTC 7

By Victor Thorn

Within days of former U.S. Army War College official Alan Sabrosky appearing on PressTV, where he touted Dutch demolitions expert Danny Jowenko's groundbreaking work on World Trade Center (WTC) 7, Jowenko was found dead following a one-car crash in Serooskerke, Netherlands.

Sabrosky said of Jowenko's findings during this interview, "WTC 7 went straight down into its own footprint in seconds without any visible external trauma, which means only some catastrophic internal trauma could have brought it down." Jowenko specifically referred to WTC 7's demise as "a professionally engineered controlled demolition."

Another curious WTC 7 fatality involved the Aug. 19, 2008 death of Barry Jennings, deputy director of emergency services for the New York City Housing Authority. Employed at WTC 7, Jennings arrived late to work on the morning of Sept. 11, whereupon he found that by the time WTC 2 was struck at 9:03 a.m., WTC 7 had already been evacuated.

Jennings noticed that his coworkers had immediately fled. "I saw half-eaten sandwiches," he said, "and there was still steam coming off coffee cups that were sitting on desks."

Told to evacuate the premises, Jennings began hearing explosions inside WTC 7 between 9 a.m. and 10 a.m., an obvious anomaly since this structure didn't implode upon itself until seven hours later, at 5:20 p.m. "I know what I heard," said Jennings. "I heard explosions."

Following a power failure, Jennings and colleague Michael Hess were escorted down from WTC 7 into the lobby, where they witnessed a remarkable sight. Jennings said it appeared as if "King Kong had come through and stepped on it."

Again, why would the lobby of WTC 7 be in total ruins seven hours prior to collapse?

In regard to his rescue, Jennings later told Loose Change filmmaker Dylan Avery, "The firefighter that took us down kept saying, 'Do not look down,' and I kept saying, 'Why is that?' [We were] stepping over people. You know you could feel when you're stepping over people."

However, according to government reports, not a single person died inside WTC 7.

Jennings's claims of explosions, dead bodies and a devastated WTC 7 lobby all directly contradict the official version of events.

Jennings died two days prior to the release of NIST's final report on the WTC 7 collapse. No official cause of death has been made public. ★

NEW BOOK BY VICTOR THORN FINAL WORD ON SEPT. 11 ATTACKS . . .

9-11 Plot—‘Made in Israel’

By Michael Langston

If it's 9-11 truth you seek, look no further than Victor Thorn's latest book on the subject, Made in Israel: 9-11 and the Jewish Plot Against America. What this book makes clear, and what many 9-11 "truthers" don't know, is that a massive deception and cover-up exists not only in the mainstream media, but in the so-called 9-11 truth movement as well.

It is true that 9-11 was an "inside" job, and criminal elements within the U.S. government were undoubtedly involved, as is so often stated by many authors and activists. But 9-11 was much more. It was an "outside" job also, ultimately made in Israel, as a mountain of evidence compiled in this new, landmark book clearly shows.

For example, whereas other authors and activists have repeatedly pointed out that Marvin Bush, brother of former President George W. Bush, was on the board of directors of a company responsible for security at the World Trade Center, Thorn specifically names the Jewish-owned security firms involved, discusses them in detail, and most importantly, points out who actually owned—and therefore controlled—they. It certainly wasn't Bush.

While other 9-11 researchers and authors might lead you on a wild goose chase and have you barking up the wrong tree at the Bush administration and the U.S. government, this book sets the record straight by focusing on the actual perpetrators and puppet masters.

Jewish control of World Trade Center security and Jewish ownership of the WTC complex is only one tiny piece of the 9-11 puzzle that Thorn meticulously pieces together. The degree of Jewish-Zionist influence over many aspects of American society documented in this book is mind-boggling.

Made in Israel
Softcover, 8.5 x 11, 91 pages, #MIS
$15 plus $3 S&H

As former Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon knowingly proclaimed, "We, the Jewish people, control America, and the Americans know it."

A cover-up of this magnitude on 9-11 could only have been carried out by a group of ruthless individuals who will stop at nothing to protect their vital interests, who will disregard and cross any moral boundary, and who possess control over America and the minds of most Americans through their control of the media.

Only Israel and its Zionist supporters could have accomplished such a feat. No other group had this kind of power or the motive to perpetrate a crime so horrendous and dastardly.

Only one nation and group of people benefited most from the attacks on 9-11: Israel and the Zionist Jews. Every other nation and group suffered, most especially those who were wrongly blamed for the attack. America suffered, Iraq suffered, Afghanistan suffered and Arab Muslims suffered. As Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu so arrogantly boasted before an audience at Bar-Ilan University in Israel, "We are benefiting from one thing, and that is the attack on the twin towers and Pentagon."

There you have it: The prime minister of Israel publicly admitted that the Israelis benefited from the 9-11 attacks. As any criminologist will tell you, the most likely suspect in any crime is the person or entity that benefited from the crime.

Considering the fact that the rogue state of Israel has a prior criminal record of perpetrating just such a crime—the June 8, 1967 attack on the USS Liberty—the verdict in this case is clear and unmistakable: 9-11 was made in Israel. ★

Made in Israel: 9-11 & the Plot Against America

By Peter Papaherakles

Anyone looking into what really happened on Sept. 11, 2001 has to be familiar with Victor Thorn's work. A prolific writer, Thorn has authored many books on 9-11, and he has been on the cutting edge of uncovering many of the numerous lies that comprise the 9-11 illusion since day one.

Thorn was a pioneer in exposing the Shanksville farce in his book Phantom Flight 93, while also writing 9-11 Exposed and 9-11 Betrayed. His 9-11 on Trial published in 2005 documented that the government's official version of events was a lie, while 9-11 Evil the following year went where no one had dared to go by uncovering Israel's central role in these attacks.

For the upcoming 10-year anniversary of Sept. 11, 2001, Thorn has outdone himself by publishing a brand new book called Made in Israel. This book is truly the last word on the subject, combining and expanding significantly upon all his vast research from the previous five books. The hard-hitting subtitle reads: "9-11 and the Jewish Plot Against America." While 9-11 on Trial focused on how the attacks occurred and 9-11 Evil explained Israel's role behind it, Made in Israel combines these two premises, along with new evidence that proves beyond doubt that Israel-firsters were behind every facet of the Sept. 11 conspiracy.

"This book presents all the facts in an organized, systematic format," says Thorn. "You can show it to anyone who cares to see, and the truth is there in black and white. There is no chance that bin Laden and his Muslim hijackers could ever have pulled it off."

Luminaries who have praised Thorn's previous books include Prof. David Ray Griffin, Jim Marrs, Michael Collins Piper and Texe Marrs, among scores of others.

Made in Israel is formatted in a large, easy-to-read 8.5-by-11-inch size that consists of two main sections. The first half lays out in a clear, no-frills style all the key players in the preparation and execution of these attacks and identifies their Jewish, Israeli and/or neo-con background. Thorn ends this portion of the book with these words: "Any 9-11 'truther' who fails to expose Israel's role has, in essence, chosen to protect the worst killers among us."

The second half of the book consists of 19 explosive articles Thorn has written on various other 9-11 subjects for AFP between 2008 and 2011.

Victor Thorn once again forces us to focus on who carried out 9-11—rather than on how it was done. At this point, any other approach is truly a form of cowardice. The elephant in the room is really the undisputable fact that Israel was behind it. If we want the truth and nothing but the truth, there's no getting around that. The question is: Can we handle the truth? ★

Military Hero Confirms Mossad Role

By Victor Thorn

At the conclusion of a July 26 interview with this writer, Dr. Alan Sabrosky made a shocking revelation: “36 hours after I did an interview with Susan Modares of Iran’s PressTV where I verbally highlighted the work of Dutch demolitions expert Danny Jowenko, he was killed in a one-car auto accident. Jowenko said in a video that demolition of WTC 7 was a professional job done by a team of experts.”

Sabrosky’s interviews with Mark Glenn and PressTV have become historic contributions to the pursuit of proving Israeli involvement in the 9-11 terrorist attacks. As someone who received the U.S. Army War College’s Superior Civilian Service Award during his tenure as director of Strategic International Studies, Sabrosky brings an undeniable amount of authority to this subject.

During his July 13 appearance on PressTV, Sabrosky explained that the supposed Arab skyjackers didn’t possess the piloting skills necessary to fly the aircrafts. Also, planes impacting the twin towers 800 feet to 1,000 feet above ground could not have caused massive explosions near their bases.

Other evidence cited by Sabrosky included two vans that were pulled over by police on the morning of Sept. 11, which were filled with explosives as well as cameras that had been focused on the twin towers, which had been set up prior to planes impacting the towers. Photos taken of the passengers of the vans show them celebrating the destruction that ensued in New York City. All of those arrested inside these two vehicles were Israeli nationals. However, within days, reports chronicling these incidents had disappeared from mainstream media sources.

To demonstrate the extent of the cover-up, Sabrosky noted that most Americans are unaware of these vans driven by Israelis. He then asked PressTV: “What would it have taken for a special ops group to have done 9-11?”

DR. ALAN SABROSKY

DANNY JOWENKO

GEORGE W. BUSH

DICK CHENEY

Nineteen Muslim cave dwellers were not capable of the level of planning required to carry out this operation. But, Sabrosky stressed, Israeli operatives had the access, motivation and expertise to not only execute these attacks, but also draw the United States into a broader Middle East war.

“They needed a catalytic event,” Sabrosky said, “another Pearl Harbor. Today we know who [did it], and we even know why.”

He continued: “The apprehension of Israeli-driven vans filled with explosives is not a fantasy. It’s a fact that ties Israel irrevocably to 9-11.”

He then referred to the neo-cons and dual U.S.-Israeli citizens involved. “To contrive these crises and to contrive these wars—all in the service of Israel—is committing high treason,” he said.

Sabrosky also claimed that an Israeli company, ICTS, not only had access to the WTC complex via their security duties, but they also were in charge of security at all three airports of departure on 9-11. If that’s not enough, ICTS further provided security in Paris and Amsterdam when the shoe and underwear “bombers” made their feeble attempts to commit acts of terrorism.

It is Sabrosky’s contention that, because Israeli operatives had direct access to the towers in order to facilitate the demolitions of WTC 1, WTC 2 and WTC 7, it’s no coincidence that “dancing Israelis” on the rooftops and in the vans were all freed from jail within months, a move approved by dual U.S.-Israeli national Michael Chertoff.

“There was no mention of their release in the mainstream media that is largely Zionist controlled. Instead, the only thing discussed on Sept. 11—and later accepted by the government-approved 9-11 Commission—were 19 Arab hijackers. It was all dealt with in Orwellian terms. Everything else was a non-event and non-story.”

As a summary, Sabrosky told PressTV: “This is not a conspiracy in the sense that it is usually used to denigrate an opposing argument, meaning that it’s irrational, illogical and without proof.” Rather, he concluded, “only two intelligence agencies had the expertise, access and political protection to execute 9-11 in the air and on the ground: our CIA and Israel’s Mossad.” ★

Evidence of Nukes in WTC

By Victor Thorn

How could the bedrock lying beneath each World Trade Center (WTC) tower actually turn to “glass” after these enormous structures fell on 9-11? And, why were there pools of molten steel still in existence months after Sept. 11, especially when it’s physically impossible for an open jet fuel fire (maximum temperature 1,510 degrees F) to melt construction-grade structural steel (melting point 2,770 degrees F)? Lastly, how could large portions of the WTC complex be vaporized?

During a July 17 interview, Vinnie Sammartino—a 9-11 researcher and author of the seminal article 9-11 Plane List Oddities—told this writer: “The glassified sand and rock at Ground Zero cannot be justified with thermite, jet fuel or conventional demolition explosives. Plus, it’s laughable that gravity took down the towers at greater than freefall speed.”

Sammartino feels this point is especially vital: “There is highly important below-ground atomic test footage that shows—after a nuke is detonated—a perfectly circular hole opening directly down into the earth. After anyone watches this video, it gives them an idea of how WTC 1 and WTC 2 dropped straight into the ground.”

Such analysis stays true to the laws of physics, which assert: Falling objects tend to follow the path of least resistance. Thus, when the twin towers were compromised, they would have presumably toppled over onto the New York City streets. But instead, they were swallowed into the earth at freefall speed.

Sammartino cites the work of Dmitri Khalezov, a former Soviet nuclear intelligence officer, who insists that these demolitions went well beyond the capabilities of nano-thermite.

Sammartino agrees: “The only way to bring down three steel buildings of that size was to put a small nuclear device underneath each of them. Conventional explosives and jet fuel would never work.”

He added, “There should have been, at the very least, a 10-story-high mound of steel after the towers fell into their own footprints. But where did all that steel and concrete go? Nuclear bombs react differently underground. That’s why we saw so much microscopic dust resulting from the pulverized steel and concrete that spread out over a mile of Manhattan. Plus, there are thousands and thousands of missing trusses that utterly vanished.”

Continuing his explanation, Sammartino said, “If you watch a documentary called 9-11 Eyewitness, you’ll see the base of each tower light up before they come down. Something very violent happened to create such a visual energy source that was captured on camera.”

As a result, Sammartino noted, “The bases lighting up justify the melted cars at Ground Zero and people catching fire. Massive sewer plate covers actually started blasting right out from the streets, which indicates an enormous amount of pressure beneath the ground.”

Molten material pours from a gash in the World Trade Center South Tower. Researchers say this could not be the result of burning jet fuel.

Tragically, Sammartino notes that many 9-11 rescue workers have contracted chronic beryllium poisoning over the past decade that is similar to what caused the deaths of early workers who designed nuclear weapons. Long-term beryllium exposure increases the risk of respiratory ailments and lung cancer, the most common symptoms for those at Ground Zero.

As a reminder, the original definition of Ground Zero prior to 9-11 is as follows: “A point on the surface of land or water directly above or below the center of a nuclear explosion.”

How eerily coincidental is it that the WTC aftermath was specifically called “Ground Zero”? ★

Bodies Vaporized at Ground Zero

By Victor Thorn

“Bodies were shredded as if a heat wave, millions of degrees in temperature, emanated from Ground Zero after an atomic bomb had been detonated.” So said Marion P. Lelong to this writer during a July 14 interview. As the author of a recently released, comprehensive book entitled 9-11 Deceptions, Lelong further described the incomprehensible damage:

“In the first weeks following 9-11, rescue workers found 20,000 different [identified] body pieces, while there were over 10,000 other unidentified body parts placed in freezers,” he said. “Overall, only 300 intact bodies were initially discovered,” Lelong said.

When one considers that the victims were supposedly killed via collapsed skyscrapers, falling debris or by leaping to their deaths, why were there so many unidentified body parts, as if the corpses had exploded? Using simple mathematics, Lelong’s numbers mean that every one of the deceased would have been converted into over a hundred different pieces.

Lelong writes in 9-11 Deceptions, “Aircraft impacts and fires in all probability would not have destroyed a single body beyond positive identification.”

Why then, as Lelong notes, “A year later [after Sept. 11, 2001], had only 1,401 of the approximately 2,780 victims been identified?”

To address this quandary, Lelong points in the direction of a far more ominous conclusion.

“Since aircraft impacts and fires would surely not have destroyed a single body so badly that it could not have been positively identified, there must have been something different and far more powerful than all known reasons for such massive buildings to collapse,” he said.

If a mental image of this incredible power source still isn’t clear, Lelong finishes his chapter Identified and Missing Human Bodies with this description: “[Body] fragments within the heat wave were instantly cremated into talcum-like dust.”

Lelong’s book is available from AFP for $30 plus $3 S&H. See ad on page 17 for details. ★

Engineer’s Nano-Thermite Challenge

By Mark Hightower

On May 1, 2001 this researcher issued a $1,000 nano-thermite challenge that sought to find and document any peer-reviewed scientific research demonstrating that nano-thermite was used to demolish the World Trade Center towers.

Not even one entry for this contest was received by the due date of June 20. This is significant because, among 9-11 researchers, including David Ray Griffin, nano-thermite is commonly believed to be a high explosive.

The explosive effects observed at the World Trade Center on Sept. 11, 2001 were not only powerful, but devastating—turning concrete and other materials to dust—as well as separating and propelling steel members and other materials in all directions.

While thermite is an incendiary (burning agent) and nano-thermite can be formulated to be a faster-reacting incendiary, or even a low explosive like black powder, it cannot be formulated to be a high explosive. Therefore, nano-thermite could have been used to sever or weaken the twin towers’ steel columns, but this low-velocity melting process is a totally different mechanism for the cutting of steel, and alone could not have accounted for the explosive effects observed.

Low-explosive nano-thermite could be eliminated as the primary method of controlled demolition of the twin towers because of its ineffectiveness. Similarly, high-explosive nano-thermite could be eliminated because it doesn’t exist. Even the term “explosive nano-thermite” used to describe the destruction of each tower is misleading.

Proponents of nano-thermite as the explosive agent responsible for the collapse of the twin towers say this photo is proof of their thesis. Longtime professional engineer Mark Hightower disagrees. Note the cut columns.

Conventional explosives mixed with nano-thermites are far more plausible explanations for the explosive effects observed that day, and in the case of a blend, nano-thermite would have functioned in the role of an additive rather than being the main ingredient itself. ★

T. Mark Hightower has worked as an engineer for nearly 30 years, initially in the chemical industry, then in the space program for NASA, and currently in the environmental field, also with NASA. He is a member of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers and the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics.

N.Y. Rep. Has 2,700 Questions About Social Security Filings

By Pat Shannan

In June, Rep. Carolyn Maloney (D-NY) contacted the Social Security Administration (SSA) in Washington to find out why it didn't list an increase in numbers to its Death Master File (DMF) for Sept. 11, 2001. Shouldn't the average number of people—405—that die each day in New York have been dramatically increased by close to 2,800? Yet a sampling of names tested by Rep. Maloney did not yield any matches in the DMF to “confirm their apparent absence,” she said.

SSA Director Michael Astrue's failure to answer her letter so far may not be an oversight so much as a fear of looking as foolish as he did with his lame reply to Ohio private investigator Susan Daniels's report to him of her findings that Barack Obama was using a Social Security number issued to someone else.

So what does this new revelation indicate? To 9-11 truthers it raises all kinds of questions that may tie into older ones, such as why were there only 266 total passengers and crew recorded on the four “skyjacked” flights that could have seated over 1,300? Also, why did flight manifests not show the name of a single Middle Easterner being aboard any of the four flights in question, and how could six of the 19 (named by the FBI) terrorists that supposedly crashed these planes turn up the next week alive on Saudi television? Now they have to ask: How could over 2,700 people die in the WTC towers and not one of them make it onto the SSA Death Master File?

However, government apologists can always supply pacifying answers. Scripps-Howard News reporter Tom Hargrove uncovered the information, informed Maloney and—to his credit—broke the story that other news agencies ignored. However, Hargrove, as a guest on the AFP Radio Hour, told this writer that he is now convinced the whole thing was a “clerical error.”

SSA officials informed him that these situations arise about once every 200 times—that a person dies and is not logged. Or, worse yet, one is declared dead but is still very much alive. This causes all kinds of problems with “identity theft” both real and imagined. Those of the latter group who are still alive but are “officially dead,” according to SSA records, suddenly become suspect and are sometimes jailed and charged with stealing what was actually their own identity.

Of course, a clerk hitting the wrong button a half percent of the time is reasonable, but 2,700 times in one day is not—even in government work.

Then the excuse was offered that only those who had applied for SSA benefits would be listed anyway. However, with a single death benefit payment of $255 going to every widowed spouse, plus far greater monthly payments for those with children under the age of 18, it seems likely that at least 2,000 or more would have fallen into these categories. So why aren't they there? Has Rep. Maloney been asked to quietly back away?

Rep. Maloney's office now refuses to return AFP's calls. Has she been asked to quietly back off?

And why does Maloney's office now refuse to return AFP's calls? Has she been quietly asked to back off?

“The mystery about 9-11 baffles me,” said Beth Givens, executive director of the San Diego-based Privacy Rights Clearinghouse that has received complaints about the accuracy of these death files. “The only things that come to mind are some of the conspiracy theories that we hear out there—and I don't want to go there.”

Neither does Hargrove. ★

9-11: WHAT REALLY HAPPENED By Ed Whitney, author of The Controllers

The official story of the Sept. 11, 2001 attacks on the United States is well known to most Americans. According to the U.S. government and the mainstream media, 19 members of al Qaeda, a militant group led by Osama bin Laden, hijacked four U.S. airliners. Three were flown into buildings (the World Trade Center North and South towers and the Pentagon), and one crashed in Pennsylvania after a heroic effort by the passengers to regain control of the plane. That's the federal story. But what facts are there to support this official scenario? As there was little to no debris from an airliner found at the WTC, the Pentagon or at Shanksville, there is little to back up the claims. Although most people will admit planes hit the World Trade Center towers, it is the strange collapse of those buildings and another massive skyscraper nearby that still confounds researchers and 9-11 skeptics. In 9/11: What Really Happened, Ed Whitney explains what did not happen and presents a much more plausible scenario. Softcover booklet, saddle-stitched, 60 pages, #EW. # Where'd the Passengers Go?

By Victor Thorn

Possibly the most-asked question by 9-11 skeptics is, "If there was a government conspiracy, what happened to all the airline passengers?" Dean Hartwell, author of Planes Without Passengers, may finally be able to provide an answer. During a July 18 interview with this writer, Hartwell began: "My no-hijacker theory contends that the planes and passengers were merely used as props. On Sept. 11, we were specifically told that four different hijackings supposedly took place. But Flight 11 and Flight 77 were not scheduled and didn't fly that day. I've confirmed this fact through the Bureau of Transportation Statistics (BTS)."

He continued: "9-11 researcher Gerard Holmgren discovered that BTS records had been tampered with because they originally said that 11 and 77 were not scheduled for takeoff."

So what happened to the passengers? Hartwell explained: "Flights 175 and 93 did fly on the morning of Sept. 11, and there were people aboard these planes. But they weren't passengers in the usual sense of the term."

Providing more details for his argument, Hartwell stated: "Most of the people that boarded these two airliners were intel assets playing a role. The vast majority of other names were fictitious. Then, when 175 took off from Boston with a very low occupancy, it ended up landing in Cleveland after changing flight numbers."

Hartwell then broached the crux of this deception: "Those aboard the two actual flights were simply playing the role of passengers. They were props. After being de-boarded, then, the intel agents went on their way. What the staged hijackings did was send a signal to future participants in these types of operations that they would be protected and not taken out and shot."

As a final thought, Hartwell addressed the purported two cell phone calls made from Flight 77 by political author Barbara Olson to her husband, Ted, a government insider who defended President George W. Bush following the 2000 election recount against challenger Al Gore. As a reward, Bush made Olson his solicitor general.

"Ted Olson changed his story several times in regard to the phone calls made to him on the morning of Sept. 11," Hartwell opined. "His wife Barbara may have been part of a simulation and merely pretended that hijackings were going on."

Indeed, during the trial of accused terrorist Zacharias Moussaoui in 2006, FBI officials examined a multitude of Olson's contradictions on television shows and in interviews, then concluded that he didn't receive a single call from his wife via cell phone or onboard passenger-seat "airfone."

In an April 1, 2008 Global Research article, Prof. David Ray Griffin weighed in with this analysis: "According to Olson, his wife said all passengers and flight personnel, including the pilots, were herded to the back of the plane by armed hijackers. This is an inherently implausible scenario. We are supposed to believe that 60 people were held at bay by three or four men with box cutters. This scenario becomes even more absurd when we realize that the alleged hijackers were all small, unathletic men." ★

9/11 DECEPTIONS: Deceptions in the government and media story have covered up the truth of what happened on 9-11-2001. No Muslims boarded the four 9-11 airliner flights, and no cell phone calls were possible at their flying altitudes and speeds. Two of the airliners interchanged with airliner-painted military airplanes operated as drones. The twin towers in the WTC were struck by Flight 11 and one drone. The WTC buildings were destroyed by extremely powerful explosives, including mini-nukes. The other drone attacked the Pentagon but skipped over as a converging missile struck. # First 9-11 Conspiracy Theorist And the Ramifications of 9-11

By Victor Thorn

Twenty-four hours after the Sept. 11, 2001 attacks, while the rest of the United States was being goaded into accepting more wars in the Middle East and Asia, one popular author of several books on the U.S. media and the role it plays in molding public opinion argued that the attacks had to have been planned in advance—and not by Osama bin Laden. Ten years later, his prescient views look even more relevant.

Just one day after the mysterious attacks, Dave McGowan wrote the article: Welcome to the New and Improved Police State. In the second paragraph, he wrote: “A few weeks ago, I told [a friend] that our own fearless leaders are veering dangerously close to unleashing ‘tactical’ nuclear weapons upon the world.” Although he may not have realized the prophetic nature of his words, a decade later there’s a resounding amount of information pointing to the use of nuclear weapons beneath the WTC towers. (See page 14 of this issue.)

During a July 17 interview with this writer, McGowan described how he was able to see through the massive ruse being played out on a grand scale.

“I immediately knew, because I entered in with a different mindset,” he said. “Being predisposed and familiar with the concept of false flags, I was already over the hurdle of accepting that attacks such as these were scripted to provide a pretext for retaliation. Our leaders are capable of doing these things, so it wasn’t entirely unexpected. I didn’t have a learning curve to overcome.”

When asked about the diabolical nature of the plotters behind 9-11, McGowan replied: “Without any conscience at all, these individuals repeat the same scenarios, because they’ve figured out what works, and they keep getting away with it.”

McGowan marveled at their arrogance, especially in New York City. “The controlled demolition of each twin tower into its own footprint was so obvious that I initially felt they’d overstepped their bounds,” he said. “It was too incredible.”

Our own fearless leaders are veering dangerously close to unleashing nuclear weapons on the world.

From a geopolitical perspective, the results were clear. McGowan continued: “This is the event they’d been waiting for to launch multiple wars. I was terrified that day for different reasons than everyone else. I knew that a more aggressive foreign policy stance was already on the drawing board, but without 9-11 there would have been too much resistance.”

Daily life for everyday citizens also faced dramatic changes. McGowan realized early on what awaited us: “Police state measures, more militaristic domestic surveillance technology, and the Patriot Act were already present. Now they just needed a pretext whereby Americans would accept it.”

The aftermath 10 years later is evident. McGowan spelled it out: “Psychologically, as a people, 9-11 had a profound effect on the country. Today, what we tolerate as normal reality would have been unthinkable a decade ago. For example, people allow themselves to be strip-searched before boarding an airplane, and they accept these intrusions as normal and necessary.”

McGowan found laughable the recent supposed “killing” of 9-11 patsy Osama bin Laden.

“Just about 150 years ago, after Abraham Lincoln’s assassination, the government disposed of John Wilkes Booth’s [supposed] body within 48 hours,”* he said. “No personal effects, physical evidence, photos or anything else was ever shown to the public. They simply took their word for it. The same happened with bin Laden. It’s like I said earlier: They keep using the same techniques over and over again, because they keep getting away with it.” ★

9-11 ON TRIAL: THE WORLD TRADE CENTER COLLAPSE

What really caused the collapse of the three buildings of the World Trade Center on Sept. 11? Is the establishment account of these events credible? In this book author Victor Thorn puts the federal theory of what happened on trial, with simulated witnesses and questioning. And when weighed, that theory is found to be wanting. Here at last is the ultimate proof that shreds the government’s official story. Softcover, 175 pages, #911T, $14 plus $3 S&H.

WTC 'Jumpers' Phenomenon

By Victor Thorn

One of the most gruesome aspects of 9-11 occurred when newscasters reported that dozens of people inside the twin towers leaped hundreds of feet down, landing on the streets of New York or rooftops. Such dramatic measures go against human nature because nearly all of us will cling to safety rather than plunge to certain death. At the time of the jumps, World Trade Center (WTC) 1 and WTC 2, despite being compromised, apparently, by the impact of airliners, still provided a safer haven than freefalling through the air and splattering below. Did all these victims willingly choose to jump, or was there more involved? On July 22, 9-11 researcher Carl Aschmann spoke with this writer to provide some insights.

"What initially struck me is how many of the jumpers were removing articles of clothing before leaping," said Aschmann. "Think about that for a moment. Utter chaos is raging in New York, the building they're in had been struck by an aircraft, and in all this insanity they decide to do what—remove their clothing? It's nonsensical."

He continued: "Emergency calls made that morning from inside the towers reflect how extremely hot these trapped people felt, yet they couldn't see any flames. Even stranger, those inside each tower were leaning against the walls of these buildings, so the physical structure itself wasn't very hot."

Aschmann then offered this reminder: "If you listen to transcripts of firemen inside the towers to their dispatchers, they refer to seeing no raging fires and how they could easily extinguish two isolated pockets of fire in WTC 2. Neither skyscraper was consumed by a raging inferno."

With this information in mind, Aschmann added, "There was no real fire anywhere, but an incredible amount of heat. People were actually disrobing, but tons of paper around them didn't burn. Why? It's almost like a microwave effect, where the food inside cooks, but the paper wrapper around it doesn't."

Aschmann wonders if the jumpers actually leaped of their own volition.

"It looked like these people were somehow thrown out of the towers—as if they hadn't really intended to jump, especially when they were flapping their arms wildly rather than being resigned to a fate they had chosen," he said. "On top of that, these people were cast outward much farther than they could have been able to physically jump, as if some type of internal force ejected them. From all the photos, it didn't look like they intended to jump out, but were instead caught unaware."

Upon impact, those unfortunate enough to view these tragedies provided some curious descriptions. Firefighter Bertram Springstead, who witnessed 30-40 jumpers splayed out on the nearby Vista Hotel's roof, characterized the horrific sight in these terms: "As I was looking out the window, another jumper comes by [and] kind of like clipped the edge of the roof and just vaporized."

Carl Aschmann cites Dr. Judy Wood and her book Where Did the Towers Go? as the source of much of his information regarding questions surrounding the World Trade Center's falling victims. ★

New Book from Marvin Clark

Son of Liberty: No Apology!

Attorney Marvin Clark wanted to know why American society is in a free-fall. So he teamed up with his retired college professor, the late Sarkis Atamian, and the two launched a 15-year research project. Their work was based upon hundreds of volumes from England, Germany, Russia and Ukraine, the Mideast, China, Southeast Asia, South America, Africa, Canada and the United States. The result is a 761-page book, entitled, Son of Liberty: No Apology!

Clark begins by explaining the historical prologue that caused elite bankers to despise American freedoms and put Christendom into conflict with atheists and Jewish Sabbatian occultists. Clark explains the origins of this terrorist cult that has affected world history for more than two centuries. Clark goes on to explain how the Sabbatians became middlemen for the American bankers with a mission to subvert and destroy Christian culture. There is a detailed history of the Frankfurt Institute of Social Research, which was comprised entirely of Sabbatian revolutionaries, the goal of which was and is the deconstruction of American Christian society and the total demise of U.S. economic might. Clark includes and explains the ideological matrix that the "Frankfurt School" blended to create its witches brew, now known as "Critical Theory." He also describes how the Frankfurt School functioned underground in America for three decades, while quietly undermining American culture.

Finally, Clark explains how and why WWI was used to set the stage for all of the wars and conflicts that have persisted until today, and which now are being used by the bankers for eradicating American freedoms. And much, much more . . .

COGNITIVE INFILTRATION

An Obama Appointee's Plan to Undermine the 9-11 Conspiracy Theory

By Prof. David Ray Griffin. Former Chicago and Harvard law professor Cass Sunstein, who in 2009 was appointed by President Barack Obama to direct an important executive branch office, had in 2008 co-authored an article containing a plan for the government to prevent the spread of anti-government "conspiracy theories." Arguing that such theories are believed only by groups suffering from "informational isolation," he advocated the use of anonymous government agents to engage in "cognitive infiltration" of these groups in order to introduce "cognitive diversity," with the aim of breaking them up. Noting that Sunstein's proposal has evoked condemnations from across the political spectrum—not least because it, being similar to the FBI's COINTELPRO of the 1960s, would be illegal—Griffin focuses on the fact that Sunstein's primary target is the research developed by the 9-11 truth movement. # Why So Many War Games Planned for Sept. 11?

By Keith Hansen

In summer 2003, a Canadian professor of mathematics released Operation Pearl, in which he offered a possible scenario for what really happened in the skies and on the ground on Sept. 11, 2001. Now a professor emeritus at the University of Western Ontario, A.K. Dewdney continued his research into the events of 9-11 and will soon be releasing an updated revision to Operation Pearl.

"It's gone through a few versions," Dewdney told AFP. "Initially, it was called Ghost Riders in the Sky because I saw electronic hijackings as being a possibility. But when I realized that at the Pentagon no bodies or airline seats or luggage or anything else pertaining to a large commercial airliner were found, I figured that probably no plane ever hit. So there went 'Ghost Riders' out the window.

"Later, I happened to be reading the PNAC [Project for a New American Century] document where they called for a new Pearl Harbor."

It was stated in PNAC's white paper Rebuilding America's Defenses that the process of transforming America would likely "be a long one, absent a catastrophic and catalyzing event—like a new Pearl Harbor."

"That's when I decided to call it Operation Pearl as a way of finding a feasible alternative scenario," said Dewdney. "That doesn't mean it has to be correct; it's merely intended to show how it was possible for an alternative scenario to exist."

Dewdney offers the prospect that targeted airliners were isolated from communication with the ground or other aircraft. Then, onboard law enforcement, presumably sky marshals, could have discreetly alerted the crew that a terrorist situation was likely to occur and that pilots were to follow a protocol requiring they change radio frequency, shut off their transponder and follow instructions for an emergency landing at another airport, in this case, possibly Harrisburg International.

The frequency change would have kept crewmembers unaware of what was happening with other commercial aircraft that were following similar emergency takedown directions in response to their supposed skyjackings. Shutting off the transponder would have allowed another commercial-like aircraft, a remotely operated drone, to take its place on radar screens.

In Operation Pearl, Dewdney also refers to Don Jacobs's The Military Drills on 9-11: Bizarre Coincidence or Something Else? in which the author chronicles how many military exercises were being conducted on 9-11.

"Jacobs mentioned that war games are expensive and rarely scheduled. It really is a remarkable coincidence that at least 17 of these war games were being conducted on 9-11."

Dewdney also went to great lengths demonstrating that cell phone calls from the airplanes were impossible to make under those conditions. It should be noted that Elizabeth Glick, wife of Jeremy Glick, a supposed passenger on United Airlines Flight 93, was interviewed for a Sept. 12 story in The New York Times about cell phone conversations with her husband while the plane was at 35,000 feet.

However, in the Sept. 2004 issue of Reader's Digest, in an article entitled "Flight 93: What We Never Knew," Mrs. Glick stated she talked to her husband not on a cell phone but a seatback "airfone."

Why the change in story three years later? Dewdney suggests that voice mimicry was a way in which conversations could have been conducted between passengers and crewmembers supposedly in the air and their friends and relatives on the ground.

Dewdney's continued research can be followed at: <http://physics911.net>. ★

Just Follow the Money & You'll Figure It Out

The following is an excerpt from the first commentary on the Sept. 11 attacks published by AFP, in the edition mailed on Sept. 14, 2001. In it, AFP advises Americans to follow the money to get to the real culprits of 9-11. It was issue #6 for 2001.

By W.A. Carto

There is no better method to find a criminal than cui bono, the ancient Roman legal principle, meaning “Who benefits?” This principle is as important to the problem of discovering the criminals behind the day of terrorism, Sept. 11, as it is in a simple murder case.

If the deed was the responsibility of any Arab or Muslim group, then the motive was pure hatred of the United States. And why do they hate us so? Any one should know the answer to that question; it is because of the totally one-sided policy of this nation in regard to the conflict between the artificial nation of Israel—an American creation—and its neighbors.

But if there is a more pragmatic motive for the horrible crime—for example, to induce even stronger support of Israel, even more money for that pampered nation, even more military support—then the whole picture abruptly changes.

The pet culprit of the mass media is a little character hiding out in a cave somewhere in Afghanistan—Osama bin Laden. This man—according to the media—is so powerful, wealthy, well-connected and smart that he was able to bring together hundreds of skilled technicians and faultlessly execute one of the most devastating military strikes of all time, and to do it without being detected in advance by any of this nation’s intelligence agencies or the Mossad—the Israeli intelligence and action arm that is known to have its spies infiltrated into every anti-Israel group in the world.

Former FBI agent Ted Gunderson told AFP: “There is no way that our U.S. intelligence did not know about this strike in advance. To skyjack four or five planes at the same time and have each gang of skyjackers operating precisely on schedule and with coordinated instructions would take 70 to 100 people involved at the least. Our intelligence and the Mossad would have to know about this in advance.” ★

[Editor’s Note added Aug. 24, 2011: The strike against America 10 years ago has cost and is still costing American taxpayers multiple billions in our so-called “War on Terror,” which is so profitable for industries, bankers, the news media and the military.—Ed.]

The John O’Neill Legend: Is 9-11 Martyr Still Alive?

By Dave Gahary

Who, other than the CIA, could have created the myth of Osama bin Laden? A primary candidate is former FBI special agent in charge of counterterrorism John O’Neill. Many 9-11 researchers know O’Neill as an iconic hero who died on his first morning of work at the World Trade Center (WTC) towers, where he was employed as head of security. He took this position after being fired from the FBI for, presumably, getting too close to unraveling the trail of bin Laden and his future al Qaeda “skyjackers” who would carry out the 9-11 attacks.

But did O’Neill actually die on Sept. 11? According to Allan Weisbecker, an author of three books and founding writer for the Miami Vice television show, the G-man may still be alive.

In an exclusive Aug. 19 interview with AFP, Weisbecker voiced his suspicions: “The plotters needed somebody at the WTC in charge of security that they could trust.”

Could O’Neill have been an insider who became part of the false-flag operation?

Weisbecker continued: “O’Neill acted as the right-hand man of Larry Silverstein and a top U.S. official, Jerome Hauer. In this capacity, O’Neill served as their man on the ground that ran the show and ensured that nobody could sabotage their well-laid plans.”

The fable goes that O’Neill began his position at the WTC on the morning of Sept. 11. However, according to Weisbecker’s extensive research, O’Neill actually began on Aug. 23. The significance of this, according to Weisbecker, is that they needed him in place to prevent others not involved in the plot from discovering the towers were scheduled for demolition.

Weisbecker told AFP: “Hauer and O’Neill were so close that they were drinking buddies. They even dined together the night before 9-11.”

Hauer, accused by some of being a Zionist operative, was vital in this charade because he directed the Office of Emergency Management under Mayor Rudolph Giuliani from 1996 to 2000. Hauer was also a managing director of Kroll Associates, which was instrumental in providing security for the WTC complex. More importantly to the 9-11 mythmakers, it was Hauer who, on the morning of the attacks, planted some of the most important disinformation during his appearances with Dan Rather and ABC’s Peter Jennings. Hauer was one of the first to identify bin Laden as the mastermind. He also went on record early, saying he knew that each collapsed tower had fallen due to fire compromising their structural integrity.

After establishing the connection to Hauer, Weisbecker then shows how O’Neill was also familiar with government black operations.

Weisbecker stated: “O’Neill actively participated in covering up the truth of a terrorism investigation involving hundreds of Americans on TWA Flight 800. That’s where he cut his teeth. If he did it before, he could do it again.”

JOHN O’NEILL

Is 9-11 hero/martyr still alive?

So, what was the flamboyant O’Neill, who, it seems, had a number of longtime girlfriends (plus a wife he had never divorced), doing on 9-11 when the whole world was being turned on its head? Rather than evacuating the towers and saving as many lives as possible, O’Neill made six personal phone calls, including some to his purported lovers.

To finalize the myth of O’Neill, none other than Hauer ostensibly identified O’Neill’s remains a week after the attacks.

But is it plausible that O’Neill is actually alive? When Weisbecker spoke with FBI agent Mark Rossini in 2007, Rossini told him, “Yeah, John is a great guy.” Immediately, Weisbecker reacted to his use of the present tense: “The hairs on my neck were on end, my mind racing. Rossini had lost his cool. He was fast-talking me and stuttering. It was clear he was trying to distract me.”

Why would everyone want O’Neill to appear dead? The answer is simple: By killing off the FBI’s alleged premier bin Laden-hunter, O’Neill would never have to testify at congressional hearings or before the 9-11 commission. All his knowledge would conveniently be taken to the grave. ★

AFP Readers React to Sept. 11, 2001 Terror Attacks

AFP began publication with the issue dated Aug. 20, 2001. Just a few weeks after we began publishing, the attacks of Sept. 11, 2001 occurred. As a matter of fact, we could see the smoke rising from the Pentagon as we looked out of the back balcony of our office at 1433 Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington. What follows are letters from AFP subscribers in the issues published in the weeks after the attack. As we looked back at them we were struck by just how smart our readers are. Many urged restraint and predicted an expanded police state and a global “war on terror” against the Muslim world. How right you all were. Most of your predictions came true and your advice is still sound today—Ed.

HOLD THE BOMBS

I just watched Pat Buchanan speak about what happened in New York City, and what we should do about it. As usual I agree with everything Buchanan said. Our government is embarking on a world war. This is crazy. Revenge for what they did yes, no question. But bombing this country or that country is wrong.

Originally, I became interested in your newspaper when Mr. Buchanan was running for president. Your newspaper was the only one that had any information on his campaign. All others were negative. I wish Buchanan was in the White House now. For I feel we are going down the wrong road, which will cost us in dollars and American lives.

A. SISTO
Massachusetts

CUI BONO?

In your Sept. 24, 2001 edition, Willis Carto's front-page article on the terrorist attacks in New York and Washington makes a good point in asking “cui bono,” or who benefits? However, the speculation that Ariel Sharon and/or the state of Israel have complicity in this heinous act, without real evidence, is merely aspersion casting. If there is real evidence of such complicity—bring it out, otherwise personal opinion, no matter how well founded, is best kept to oneself.

WILLIAM BELH
Pilesgrove, New Jersey

WRONG PLACE

President Bush, back in the White House after a brief trip to Florida, said: “I and my administration are going to rid the world of evil and terrorism.” If Bush plans to attack the Arab countries with America's weapons of mass destruction to rid the world of evil, he is looking in the wrong place.

PREVENTING TERRORISM

Several years ago it was suggested that an armed sky marshal fly on each of the long distance air flights to apprehend any perpetrators who attempted to skyjack the aircraft. The idea was soon rejected because it was claimed that it would be dangerous to have armed security riding the plane. Now, billions of dollars and thousands of lives later, it is probably true that one sky marshal armed with a .38 handgun could easily have overcome five unarmed sky-jackers and prevented the horrendous catastrophes that have taken place in New York City and Washington, D.C.

FRANK TOMAN
New York

LOOK HERE FIRST

Those who would strike an “enemy” in a desert on the other side of the Earth should look underneath their bed first.

HARRY S. MONESSON
New Jersey

WHO'S BEHIND THE ATTACKS?

The United States should refrain from doing anything irrational. A true believer in the Koran is forbidden from committing suicide. Muslims believe, as do Christians, that there is God, Heaven and Hell. Once again, we find ourselves facing a fanatical endeavor for global domination—but it's not being orchestrated by any of the groups identified in the media. Zionists are surely involved in this latest attack. If their agitation would stop completely, the whole world could be at peace.

JAY ANDERSON
New Mexico

HOLD THE FINGER POINTING

We shouldn't be so quick to point a finger at so-called “radical Islamic groups.” Readers should know that other groups and intelligence agencies can easily carry out a violent attack and cover their tracks using the mainstream media to broadcast disinformation. Most Americans are too easily duped to figure it out. However, I should expect better from the patriot community, who, time and time again, has been demonized in the mainstream press.

BILL BOSLEY
New York

REAL TERROR TO COME

The horrific terrorist acts perpetrated against innocent Americans were a terrible tragedy. But watch closely America—the real terror is yet to come. In a frenzied assault, overzealous legislators and tyrannical federal officials are quickly creating so-called anti-terrorist proclamations that have the effect of eliminating Americans' hard-fought constitutional rights. To paraphrase our Founding Fathers: Be ever vigilant, a populace willing to give up liberty for a little security deserves neither.

BOB EUSTACE
California

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY

My heart goes out to all those who perished and are suffering as a result of this terrible terrorist act. It truly is a sad day in U.S. history. Every American should pray for an end to the bloodshed. And the best way is for the U.S. government to stop meddling in world affairs. America should take care of its needs first, the rest of the world can work itself out.

Did Researcher William Cooper Pay With His Life?

By Victor Thorn

On Nov. 5, 2001—less than two months after the 9-11 attacks—deputies from the Apache County Sheriff's Department shot William Cooper dead in the driveway of his Arizona home. Did these lawmen actually murder Cooper due to his ongoing exposure of the 9-11 deception?

In a June 28, 2001 radio broadcast, Cooper warned: “Be prepared for a major attack. But it won't be Osama bin Laden. It will be those behind the New World Order.”

At that time, most people had never even heard of bin Laden. Cooper pushed this angle further, saying that a CNN television crew had just interviewed bin Laden in an Afghan cave. Cooper said that within the next three weeks bin Laden would be blamed for a major attack.

Although Cooper missed the target date by six weeks, he still identified on June 28, 2001 who the fall guy would be.

“Whatever is going to happen, they're going to blame it on Osama bin Laden; but don't you believe it,” he said.

On the morning of 9-11, Cooper told his listeners, “Is there anybody out there who really believes that those airplanes crashing into the upper quarter of the two WTC towers caused both of those buildings to collapse?”

He continued: “What happened in the WTC towers today is exactly what happened at Oklahoma City. It wasn't a truck parked out front on the street that brought that building down. You can't bring down a building like that by flying a plane into it or blowing up a truck full of fertilizer. You need charges placed upon the main structural members of the building.”

Cooper was so far ahead of the game on 9-11 that it's scary. “The CIA created Osama bin Laden, and the Bush family has been doing business with his family for many years,” he said. “That's a fact. They have intertwining investments in their business dealings.”

Returning to the controlled demolitions, Cooper explained on the morning of Sept. 11: “Talk to some architects who build skyscrapers. Part of their design is the knowledge that airplanes sometimes crash into them, and they must be designed to withstand a crash.”

Finally, on Sept. 15, Cooper penned an article entitled Who Benefits that began: “Who benefits from the World Trade Center and Pentagon terrorist attacks? I can tell you that no Arab nation benefits. I can tell you that no Muslim benefits. So why would any of them mount an attack that even the most stupid fanatic in the world would understand to be the instrument of the absolute condemnation and alienation of his cause by all humanity?”

Following this insightful analysis, Cooper then identified the true masterminds behind this tragedy.

“So, who benefits?” he asked. “The answer is obviously very disturbing. Everyone in the oil business will benefit, especially the Bush family and their business partners. Everyone in the military-industrial complex will benefit. The UN will benefit. The state of Israel will benefit big time. Tyranny in the name of security will benefit and rule over the American people.”

William Cooper was, in the eyes of many of us, the man who rightfully deserves the title “grandfather of the 9-11 truth movement.” (Those who falsely try to appropriate that title for themselves should be viewed with some healthy skepticism.) Cooper was the real deal—and he paid for speaking the truth with his life. ★

New Survival Seed Bank Lets You Plant A Full Acre Crisis Garden!

New "Survival Seed Bank" Produces Thousands Of Pounds Of Nutrient-Dense Food For Pennies Per Pound... Enough To Feed Friends And Family Forever!

Now you can grow all the survival food you will ever need anywhere in the country with a special seed bank of hard to find, open-pollinated... super-seeds, grown by small, fiercely independent farmers.

Let's face it. If the stories coming out on the world's food supply are even half right, we've got real problems and they aren't going to go away quickly. Here are a couple stories that I ran across recently:

- WorldNetDaily cites strong evidence that some government agencies are stockpiling huge amounts of canned food.
- Jim Randas, former U.S. Intelligence officer, appeared on ABC telling Americans to start stockpiling food.
- Grocery store prices are rising faster than any time in U.S. history.
- Worldwide grain stocks are dropping precipitously as bio-fuels consume inventories... and on and on and on.

You don't have to be an Old Testament prophet to see what's going on all around us. A belligerent lower class demanding handouts. A rapidly diminishing middle class crippled by police state bureaucracy. An aloof, ruling elite that has introduced us to an emerging totalitarianism which seeks control over every aspect of our lives.

As things begin melting down, one of the first things to be affected will be our nation's food supply. Expect soaring prices along with moderate to severe shortages by spring. If you don't have the ability to grow your own food next year, your life may be in danger. Supply lines for food distribution in this country are about three days, meaning a dependence on "just in time" distribution systems, which will leave store shelves empty in the event of even the smallest crisis.

Are You Ready To Take Control Of Your Own Food Supply?

Could you and your family get off the grid and survive in a panic? Do you have enough seeds to plant a survival garden and feed your family? Do you have the right kind of seeds to plant? If you're answering no to these questions, you need to stop wherever you are and ask yourself... "What would I do if the grocery stores closed?" The answer sadly is that you'd probably go hungry.

Here's What You Should Do Right Now...

First, you need to have the peace of mind knowing that if things were to get scary, that you and your family could still eat. Listen: having enough non-hybrid seeds to plant an acre or two could be the difference between life and death. With our new "Survival Seed Bank," growing your own survival food becomes easy. Remember, our hand picked seeds are not genetically modified in any way. You simply save some of your harvest seeds from year one and have more than enough to plant in year two. You'll never need to buy seeds again! You just can't do that with man made hybrid seeds.

It's been very difficult to acquire high quality, open pollinated seeds lately. We've had a lot of our Food Storage Secrets' customers asking for a good source and we finally have seeds we feel comfortable offering folks whose lives may depend on exceptional germination rates.

Listen, when the going gets tough... you'll only want this special type of seed which will produce not only outstanding nutritional plants but will allow you to plant the seeds from the plants you grow unlike sterile hybrids. Most seed companies are now selling only "terminator" seeds which have been genetically modified and will not reproduce themselves.

These Are NOT Ordinary Seeds... They Have Been Chosen For Their Truly Extraordinary Germination Rates!

"Contains $500.00 Worth of Heirloom Seeds if Purchased From a Retailer!"

Grown in remote plots, far from the prying eyes of the big hybrid seed companies, each of the Survival Seed Bank varieties have been hand picked for germination rate, nutritional density and of course, storage life. These seeds are true heirlooms and produce extremely nutritious plants. In fact, some studies show that these varieties are up to five times as nutritious as hybrid varieties. We have also selected seeds that will produce some of the best tasting garden produce available.

Each seed pack is individually packaged for maximum shelf life. Here's what we mean by that: We carefully dry each seed to the precise level of allowable moisture which "locks in" hardiness and maintains extremely long shelf life. Then, each seed package is sealed in a special foil packet with a very expensive desiccant designed to keep seeds fresh for 20 years at 70 degrees. However, if you freeze your "seed bank" you could increase the shelf life by five times or more beyond that.

(By the way, never buy seeds in plastic or paper containers. The seeds just won't last.)

The seed packs are then vacuum packed and placed in a special waterproof (practically indestructible) container we call a Seed Bank. We believe that this type of storage container is the absolute best way to store seeds for the long term. Yep, it costs a little more, but if you do have to store seeds for the long haul, it's pretty darn important that they will not only have high germination rates, but grow into lush, productive crops when you need them most.

Each Survival Seed Bank has a total of 22 varieties of OPEN POLLINATED "super seeds." Also included are detailed growing instructions for each variety which includes helpful information on harvesting of seed stock for the following year in a survival situation. This is obviously very important because failing to collect seeds properly at harvest time could mean starvation.

Each Survival Seed Bank Contains These Or Similar Hand Picked Varieties:

Calypso Bean
Hidatsa Red Bean
Tiger's Eye Bean
Bloody Butcher Corn
Country Gentlemen Corn
Forellenschuss Lettuce
Speckled Lettuce
Boule d'Or Melon
Australian Brown Onion
Scarlet Nantes Carrot
White Box Radish
Siberian Tomato
Amish Snap Pea
Mammoth Red Rock Cabbage
Giant Swiss Chard
Dark Red Beet
Big Butternut Squash
King of the North Pepper
Georgia Flame Pepper
Double Yield Cucumber
Buran Pepper
American Spinach

"Indestructible Survival Seed Bank Can Be Buried To Avoid Confiscation."

*Important: We are in a very real "non-hybrid" food shortage. This means we may have to substitute varieties if supplies become exhausted. All Seedbanks will contain the same amount of heirloom seeds, enough to plant a full acre crisis garden.

Over 10,000 Seeds – Enough To Plant One Full Acre!

Remember, non-hybrid seeds can be grown practically anywhere and have the ability to assimilate mineral and trace elements from the soil that man-made plants just don't seem to have. That's because they were created by God as we read in Genesis:

And God said, "Let the earth sprout vegetation, plants yielding seed, and fruit trees bearing fruit in which is their seed, each according to its kind, on the earth."

So here's the deal: I'm trying to get the word out before the food crisis becomes too apparent to the general public and there is a run on these seed banks. I've decided to sell the Survival Seed Bank at a discounted price to our customers who use this website to order. For the general public, the price will be a fat $249.00 - no discounts... even to FEMA or military personnel. Take it or leave it. But for existing Solutions From Science customers, as long as supplies last, I will send you everything for just...

"The Survival Seed Bank Can Save Your Family When Disaster Strikes."

$149.00 Until We Run Out!

That's less than half of what everyone else will have to pay when the Survival Seed Bank hits the street. I'm making this "extra" discounted offer because our current customers deserve "first dibs" on something this important.

So... all in all... you're saving $351.00 off the full retail price... and you get a waterproof seed bank FREE. That's right. You can actually bury this unit for 20 years if you like and still have your seeds when you need them most. Most seed companies send you seeds in paper envelopes and cardboard boxes. But the difference is that the seed bank you get from us is practically indestructible.

That's a heck of a deal right there.

But there's more: I am also going to give you a bottle of "Nitro Seed Starter Solution" absolutely free of charge. What this amazing product does is allows you to jump start your crop by simply soaking your seeds in this solution the night before you plant. When the Nitro Seed soaked seeds hit the ground... it's over. They grow like crazy!

And there's one more thing: You'll also receive instructions on how to harvest seeds for the following year.

For the fastest possible service go to: www.survivalseedbank.com and place your order online. You may also call 877-327-0365 to order. Our remaining inventory of Survival Seed Banks is going to vanish quickly I can assure you. (And when my partners discover what I've done, they're going to make sure we never do it again!) But time is of the essence. There are only a handful of Survival Seed Banks available right now. As more and more customers snatch them up... (We've only got enough bulk seeds to make up a handful of seed banks), you may never again get another chance to own one at this price.

You can also order by sending a check or money order to:

Solutions From Science
Attn. Survival Seed Bank
815 W. Main St.
P.O. Box 518
Thomson, IL 61285

P.S. One last thought — I want to make SURE you understand how much you're getting here. If you purchased these same seeds "retail" you could very well pay over $500.00. That makes the Survival Seed Bank package a ridiculous bargain. For just $149.00 plus 15.00 shipping and handling (total $164.00), you get enough seeds to plant a full acre survival garden! And... you'll have confidence knowing that you and your family will be able to eat if the Insiders trigger some huge meltdown. You'll have the best germinating seeds available. Don't wait another second — call or order online right now, while you're thinking about it.

P.P.S. Remember... when these Survival Seed Banks are gone, with the current seed shortage, we can't guarantee enough heirloom seeds will be available to meet the current high demand.
