THE BILDERBERG VIRUS

• Globalist cabal a major player in Covid fascism

By Mark Anderson

It's that time of year again, when the high and mighty from government, the corporate world, central banking, hi-tech, Big Pharma, academia, elements of the bought-off press, and royalty gather behind locked and guarded doors at the annual Bilderberg meeting. As AFP goes to press on May 9, the location and dates of the 2024 gathering could not yet be reliably ascertained. But it's still worth spotlighting the secretive group as it enters its 70th meeting in 70 years, having started via CIA seed money in 1954 at the Hotel de Bilderberg in the Netherlands—hence the name of these conferences.

During the Covid years from 2020-21, the infamous Bilderberg group took a two-year hiatus with suspected smaller sessions held in secret.

Publicly announced Bilderberg gatherings did not officially reconvene until 2022 in Washington D.C., followed by Lisbon, Portugal in 2023.

In a May 6 phone conversation with AFP, UK reporter Tony Gosling called attention to vital information gathered online by Wikispooks, which indicates that many Bilderberg attendees were somehow connected to the Covid crackdowns of 2020-21.

In the past, Gosling worked with AFP Bilderberg hound Jim Tucker covering Bilderberg gatherings several years before this AFP writer assisted Tucker covering them from 2010 until Jim's passing in 2013.

These Wikispooks' linkages pertain to masking, lockdowns, pandemic planning scenarios and several other categories, while naming the Bilderberg attendee affiliated with each particular category.

For example, Wikispooks notes:

Bilderbergers have taken part in "pandemic planning" exercises, and many were active in early 2020, controlling the narrative to promote fear of the "novel deadly virus." In May 2020, at least 14 signed a public letter titled "Uniting Behind a People's Vaccine Against Covid-19," a call to create an infrastructure capable of rapidly injecting everyone in the world with the Covid jabs which they correctly predicted would appear. They populated Covid task forces and locked the world down.

Many Bilderbergers worked at pandemic planning, and the group has been well represented at such exercises for at least 20 years. Those with the most obvious ties—with the years they attended Bilderberg in parentheses—are listed as follows:

- Gro Harlem Brundtland (1982, 1983) introduced "A Spreading Plague" (2019 Pandemic planning exercise) and attended the February 2020 Preventing Global Catastrophic Biological Risks exercise;

- Avril Haines (2017, 2023), a U.S. Deep State actor who participated in the uncanny Event 201 "zoonotic" pandemic prediction in October 2019 just before Covid-19 erupted, and the February 2020 Preventing Global Catastrophic Biological Risks exercises. (CIA deputy director 2013-15; National Intelligence director since 2021); and, among others,

- Sam Nunn (1996, 1997) is long experienced in pandemic planning, such as Operation Dark Winter (code for a bio-terrorist attack exercise in 2001), and the February 2020 Preventing Global Catastrophic Biological Risks exercise.

Wikispooks added, of the estimated 1,821 living Bilderbergers, "over 140 ... have played significant roles in managing the Covid-19 event [and] many of those listed are on the list of Covid-19 World Economic Forum perpetrators."

That includes Pfizer chief Albert Bourla, who attended the two most recent Bilderberg meetings. ★
