Pro-Abortion Terrorists Strike Pro-Life Christian Facilities

By the AFP Staff

Beginning June 9, the Select Committee to Investigate the January 6th Attack on the United States Capitol will be releasing its findings on the Jan. 6 protests in televised hearings with the intent of smearing as domestic terrorists the thousands of otherwise patriotic Americans who travelled to Washington to exercise their constitutional rights that day.

At the same time, U.S. authorities have been neglecting to address a real U.S.-based terrorist group that has threatened a “night of rage” in mid-June if the highest court in the United States issues a legal ruling on abortion that is not to the group’s liking. Leaders with this organization, known only as Jane’s Revenge, made their violent intent known publicly on May 31, yet, so far, neither the Justice Department nor any federal law enforcement agency has issued a public statement on it.

In the past six months, Jane’s Revenge members have been blamed for vandalizing and firebombing multiple headquarters of pro-life groups, though some reports indicate it is likely even more than that.

According to published reports, on May 8, Jane’s Revenge took responsibility for firebombing a pro-life organization in Madison, Wisc. No one was hurt in that attack, but the office of the Wisconsin Family Action was severely damaged.

Later that month, a similar bombing occurred at the office of Oregon Right to Life. Over Memorial Day weekend, the Respect Life Office in Hollywood, California, which houses the South Broward Pregnancy Help Center, was vandalized with threatening messages along with Jane’s Revenge and an anarchist symbol.

Online, the group has said it is responsible for vandalizing and destroying multiple churches and pregnancy help centers.

On May 31, a member of Jane’s Revenge posted the following to multiple anarchist websites:

Wisconsin is the first flash point, but we are all over the United States, and we will issue no further warnings. And we will not stop, we will not back down, nor will we hesitate to strike until the inalienable right to manage our own health is returned to us.

Members of Jane’s Revenge are referring to killing babies in the womb up until birth as an inalienable right that is currently under scrutiny by the Supreme Court. Very soon, Supreme Court justices are expected to release their majority opinion relating to the controversial Roe v. Wade ruling that paved the way for legalized abortion in all states in the United States. In May, an unknown individual leaked a draft of the expected ruling that indicated the justices are planning to overturn the landmark case.

Wisconsin police say they have reached out to the FBI and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives and they are actively working with them, but federal law enforcement officials have yet to make an official statement on this left-wing domestic terror organization despite the attacks and threats that have been made by it. ★
