DOMESTIC TERROR

• Black Lives Matter demanding whites give up their homes

By the AFP Staff

As this newspaper goes to press, parts of the city of Portland have been on fire for over 80 days due to the violent riots that take place there every night. And that is not all. Other major U.S. cities, such as Chicago, New York, Los Angeles, Atlanta, Boston, Dallas, Minneapolis, Columbus, Detroit, and Seattle, have all seen protests break out into rioting and looting in the past two months. Hundreds of police have been injured as a result of this, along with many innocent bystanders. All of these wanton acts of mayhem and destruction have been carried out at the behest of individuals affiliated with groups like Black Lives Matter (BLM) and Antifa. It is high time local, state, and federal law enforcement call out these individuals and organizations and slap a designation labelling them what they truly are: domestic terrorists.

Only recently, BLM demonstrators marched through a quiet neighborhood in Seattle in the wee hours of the morning, shouting on megaphones in an effort to intimidate homeowners into giving up their homes to the radicals.

In shocking video posted to the internet, a crowd of dozens of people dressed in black and wearing masks were chanting "black lives matter." An unidentified man then moves to the front and directs his angry outburst at nearby white residents, saying they are living in a historically black section of the city. Another woman in the crowd yells that they should "give up" their homes.

In Chicago, a group of demonstrators, mostly made up of white, 20-something adults, gathered in front of a police station to demand that officers release individuals who had been arrested for destroying and looting dozens of stores in the Windy City. Ariel Atkins, who claims to be the organizer for BLM's Chicago chapter, egged on the crowd, telling them, "I don't care if somebody decides to loot a Gucci or a Macy's or a Nike store because that makes sure that person eats. That makes sure that person has clothes. That is reparations. Anything they want to take, take it because these businesses have insurance." But many smaller stores do not.

In perhaps one of the most shocking examples of violence, on Aug. 16, a dozen BLM protesters in Portland attacked a young man who had stopped while driving through Portland to intervene when he saw the group robbing someone.

In video that has gone viral across the internet, the group can be seen dragging the man from his truck and kicking and punching him until he is lying in the street, bleeding and unconscious. One of the BLM protesters, who was later identified as local DJ Marquise Love, can be seen kicking the injured man in the head and shouting, "black lives matter, [expletive deleted]!" Another woman can be
