URBAN ANARCHY

• Soft-on-crime policies fuel violence in cities across U.S.

By John Friend

As the Biden administration and Congress continue to funnel endless piles of cash to Ukraine while state and local governments spend untold amounts of taxpayer dollars providing housing, schooling, and other subsidies to migrants—many of whom entered the country illegally—shocking violence and criminality spiral out of control in major cities across the country.

Just before AFP went to press, mobs of almost exclusively black thugs—“youths,” as the fake news media often reports—engaged in widespread looting and criminal mayhem in Philadelphia. The looting and violence were a direct result of a local Philly cop having all charges against him dismissed following the shooting of a criminal who had led officers on a high-speed chase, refused to cooperate, and was wielding a knife earlier this summer.

Soros-funded Philadelphia district attorney Larry Krasner charged officer Mark Dial with first-degree murder for shooting a knife-wielding 27-year-old criminal named Eddie Irizarry during a traffic stop on Aug. 14.

Municipal Judge Wendy Pew agreed with Dial’s defense team that the malicious charges should never have been filed in the first place, citing a lack of evidence to justify them.

Despite the harsh rebuke from a sitting judge, Krasner quickly filed a motion to reinstate all the charges against Dial, with a hearing to adjudicate that motion scheduled for Oct. 25.

Meanwhile, earlier this summer in New York, a gang of three “brutes”—a newly concocted euphemism used by dishonest mass media outlets to describe non-white criminals—beat to death a black taxi driver after getting into an argument. The thugs punched and kicked the cab driver on the busy streets of Manhattan as onlookers watched impotently.

Such scenes are disturbingly typical not only in New York, but every other major city in America.

In Chicago on Sept. 26, video emerged of a man innocently walking down the street enjoying a slice of pizza when he was beaten and robbed, once again by two “brutes,” according to the New York Post. The young man, who was sucker-punched in the head from behind and then repeatedly pummeled by two large black men, was white.

Finally, a gruesome murder took place on Sept. 24 when a 26-year-old young white woman, Pava LaPere, was murdered by a convicted sex offender, who was released from a 30-year prison sentence after only serving 11 years. Ms. LaPere was a tech entrepreneur and “an admired leader known as a rising star in her field,” according to local reports.

Police announced on Sept. 28 that they had arrested the black suspect, Jason Billingsley, a violent career criminal who is also the suspect in a Sept. 19 arson and sexual assault case that left a young man and woman in critical condition.

The outrageous violence and criminality we see on vivid display is the inevitable outcome when law enforcement and prosecutors go soft on these monstrously violent criminals, blaming everything on “white supremacy” and “systemic racism.” ★
