CIVIL WAR BREWING

• GOP states send troops to stop Biden's illegal alien invasion

By the AFP Staff

A battle to save the United States is currently being waged between multiple U.S. states and the federal government—but you wouldn't know that if all you read was the mainstream media.

In an effort to stem the unprecedented wave of illegal aliens who have been swarming into the country since Joe Biden took the White House in 2021, Texas Gov. Greg Abbott (R) has been utilizing the state's National Guard to shut down border crossings in his state using myriad physical means including placing razor wire along common migration paths.

The Biden administration has been doing everything it can to stop Abbott. Biden officials went so far as to get the Supreme Court to weigh in on their side and order Texas not to interfere with the Border Patrol, which has been told by Biden's immigration appointees to tear down any barriers to entry Texas authorities have erected.

To his credit, Abbott is sticking to his guns and has been firm in his resolve to stop the surge of millions of illegal immigrants into the U.S.

"Texas has a right as a state to stop

Members of a "border convoy" are also headed to border states to protest and help where they can.

criminals from coming into our state, to make arrests of those criminals—and we have National Guard as well as Texas Department of Public Safety officers who are there to make those arrests and to deny illegal entry," Abbott told Fox News on Jan. 25.

Now, as AFP goes to press, 25 Republican governors have stepped up to assist Texas, issuing a statement in support of Abbott. Their joint press release reads, in part:

We stand in solidarity with our fellow governor, Greg Abbott, and the state of Texas in utilizing every tool and strategy, including razor wire fences, to secure the border. We do it in part because the Biden administration is refusing to enforce immigration laws already on the books and is illegally allowing mass parole across America of migrants who entered our country illegally.

So far, 14 Republican governors have sent resources and personnel to Texas as part of "Operation Lone Star," the official name for Texas's multi-agency operation to stem the current tide of illegal immigration. Among them, Virginia Gov. Glenn Youngkin has sent 100 state National Guard, while Arkansas Gov. Sarah Huckabee Sanders sent 80 National Guardsmen.

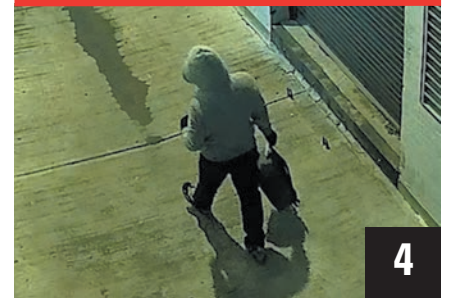

In an official statement, Sanders's spokesperson Alexa Henning told reporters:

Gov. Sanders supports Gov. Abbott's efforts to secure the southern border, and nothing is off the table to assist Texas with their efforts to combat Biden's failure. She will continue to raise concern about the humanitarian and security crisis, human trafficking, and drug trafficking that is affecting every state in the nation due to Biden's disastrous open border policies.

According to Abbott's office, in the past few months, Texas law enforcement officials have already apprehended a half million illegal immigrants and stopped millions of lethal doses of fentanyl from entering the United States.

While we hope and pray that this situation does not devolve into a real civil war, the illegal invasion that threatens America must be stopped, one way or another. ★
